D&D ADVENTURERS LEAGUE CATALOGUE

IT WAS OGHMA, THE GOD OF KNOWLEDGE. Although I can't really say that I met him, I suppose, as he was drunk and fast asleep in Cousin Roffler's back lawn – or perhaps I should say ON Cousin Roffler's back lawn. He was a giant of an avatar, sprawled out and snoring. I wonder how you get a god drunk?

—Jan, a thief, to Minsc, a barbarian

WHAT IS THIS?

The Dungeons and Dragons Adventurers League has been around for a few years now, and a lot of content has been created during that time. A number of high-quality hardcover books, a huge array of PDFs, and a whole slew of other play options have been introduced – and this means that it can be a lot to track, especially for the casual player!

To remedy this, we've decided to publish a listing of all legal play options for our players and Dungeon Masters. It's been a lot of work getting our notes into a readable format, but we're committed to the vision: expect an updated version of this document about once per quarter.

ADVENTURE CODE CHEAT SHEET

CODE	DEFINITION
DDAL	Standard AL adventure
DDEN	"Encounters"; adventure was available only to retailers. This program is retired, but the content is still legal for play.
DDEP	"Epic"; an adventure that is higher-challenge, requires multiple tables, and can only be run at a convention or retail event
DDEX	"Expeditions"; standard AL adventure. This program has been retired, but the content is still legal for play.
DDHC	"Hard Cover"; the seasonal releases that often take characters from 1-10+. May sometimes extend to other evergreen products, like Lost Mine of Phandelver
DDIA	"Intro Adventure"; provides an introduction to a book, season or play, or some other event/content.
DDLE	"Launch Event"; content made available to retail locations to celebrate the launch of a new book. This code has been retired, but the content is still legal for play. Now known as DDIA.
CCC	"Community-Created Content"; adventures that are not necessarily canon, but can be created by conventions that have been given permission to do so. For more information, refer to the CCC section of this document.

I'M NEW – WHAT DO I NEED?

AWESOME! Welcome to the party! Despite the plethora of links contained in this document, you only need a couple things to get started with D&D Adventurers League play:

- The core rules (FREE, or use your PHB)
- The most current Player's Guide (FREE)
- The most current FAQ (inside the Player's Pack)
- dice
- a group to play with!

If you want to expand your game experience, check these out, too:

- Volo's Guide to Monsters reference sheets
- D&D AL Faction Guide

And that's it – go forth and create your own legend in the Forgotten Realms! Always be sure to use the latest Player's Guide and DM's Guide – the old ones are linked in this document for preservation purposes only.

THE ADVENTURERS LEAGUE

The Forgotten Realms is a huge world, full of wild adventures and exotic locales. Over the last 30-plus years, players and Dungeon Masters everywhere have shared in the fantastic experiences that only Dungeons & Dragons can provide.

With the release of 5th Edition, we here at the D&D Adventurers League wanted to continue the trend of crafting epic stories in this sprawling world. To that end, we created this group to become our play focus, our Organized Play venue, and our way of keeping the community involved in sharing their heroic – and sometimes villainous! – tales.

No matter if you are a crafty Zhentarim agent, a cunning Harper spy, a tough-as-nails arbiter of the Order of the Gauntlet, an enforcer of the Lords' Alliance, or a hunter from the Emerald Enclave, this world and its groups now include you.

What will your legend be?

Did You Know?

DM Quests are introduced in Season 4. DMs can take credit for these quests whenever they run an adventure from the following categories:

- DDAL
- DDEX (this code is retired, but the adventures are not!)
- DDEP
- DDHC
- DDIA
- CCC (some quests)

Also.... Guild Adepts! This program serves to highlight some high-performing content contributors from dmsguild.com. Not every submission into the Guild Adept program are valid for Adventurers League play, but every entry is intended to promote the overall seasonal "feel" and flow for its companion hardcover adventure. Guild Adept contributors are selected by Wizards of the Coast directly.

NOTE: Some DM Quests require specific adventures to be run in order to gain credit. Ex: DDAL04 series, or DDHC-CoS.

SEASON 0. SEASON AGNOSTIC ADVENTURE GUIDANCE

Season 0 adventures are not part of our main storyline seasons and may not be explicitly linked to other content.

STORY ITEMS

If the characters acquire any of the following items during their play of the Season 0 adventures, they may use them as they see fit. Once these items are found, they can be used just like any other item. They can be attuned to, passed to other group members, or stowed; they do not have associated cost via gold or treasure points. Additionally, these items cannot be traded outside of the group and cannot leave these hardcover adventures – so if one of your party members has attuned to one of them and misses the next game due for some reason (playing in another game elsewhere, life, etc.) the item is considered “party loot” and the DM simply re-assigns it to another character; when this happens, the original character loses attunement and any new wielder can attune as per the item’s normal rules (if any are required).

There are currently no story items for Season 0 adventures.

SEASON 1. TYRANNY OF DRAGONS

The first season of Adventurers League play was debuted at Gen Con in 2014. Nearly 1,000 players turned out to participate in the very first Epic, Corruption in Kryptgarden, and hundreds of other players experienced the trials and vile plots of the Cult of the Dragon in Phlan, a city on the north shore of the Moonsea. While the hardcover adventures Hoard of the Dragon Queen and Rise of Tiamat explored storyline events along the Sword Coast, the Adventurers League players made their way through Phlan, the Quivering Forest, and other similar places along this northern inland sea in an attempt to prevent the... well, play the adventures and the truth will become clear.

But be warned: not all ends well, I'm afraid!

ELEMENTAL EVIL

SEASON 2. ELEMENTAL EVIL

The town of Mulmaster – often referred to as “the City of Danger” – has its own trouble brewing: the crazed Elemental Cults are seeking to overturn the city entirely and open raw portals in an attempt to bring their vile Princes directly to Faerûn! With multiple new play options like the FREE Elemental Evil Player’s Companion, how to join the Cloaks, and the revised status of the city both before and after the events of the season... the Moonsea will never be the same again!

MULMASTER DOWNTIME ACTIVITIES

Members of the five factions that have achieved rank 3 have access to the following special downtime activities when adventuring in and around Mulmaster.

HARPERS: ARCANES AMNESTY

You have friends within the Cloaks—an order of arcanists in Mulmaster—that are sympathetic to the Harpers’ cause. You have advantage on any social interaction checks to exonerate you or anyone in your group for using restricted magic in and around the city. In addition, you can spend downtime days to have an arrested caster freed from prison or harsh punishment. The cost is 1 downtime day per level of the violating spell.

ORDER OF THE GAUNTLET: JUDGE FRIEND

You are a dueling judge and have overseen many duels in Mulmaster. You have the ear of friends within the dueling judge community, and can call upon the services of a battle-hardened warrior to lend you aid. At the beginning of an adventure or when appropriate, you can spend 5 downtime days to recruit a veteran (see appendix B of the Monster Manual). The veteran performs any tasks within reason and capability, but parts ways with you after taking part in one combat or at the end of the adventure.

EMERALD ENCLAVE: SECLUDED HAVEN

You have a secret place just outside the city where you and your allies can rest, recuperate, and find mounts. When you use the recuperating downtime activity (see the Basic Rules or the Player’s Handbook), you can apply the effects to your entire group. In addition, at the beginning of an adventure or when appropriate, you can spend downtime days to borrow mounts (riding horses, ponies, or mules) for yourself and your group. The cost is 1 downtime day per mount borrowed. All mounts must be returned at the end of the adventure. If any mount dies during the course of the adventure, you must pay half its value in gold.

LORDS' ALLIANCE: HAWK ASSOCIATION

You are part of the Hawks, the secret police of Mulmaster. You maintain law and order through intimidation and strongarm tactics. You can coerce information from the common folk for your benefit, gaining advantage on any Charisma (Intimidation) checks to do so. Once per adventure at the beginning of an adventure, you can spend 3 downtime days to learn an adventure secret. The Dungeon Master provides you with a secret that only you know about the adventure, and you gain advantage on all checks to recall related information for the duration of the adventure.

ZHENTARIM: PROCURE ILLICIT GOODS

You have contacts among smugglers residing in the ghettos of the city, who are able to procure restricted and illicit items for you. At the beginning of an adventure or when appropriate, you can spend 2 downtime days to gain one of the following items for the duration of the adventure: carrion crawler mucus, serpent venom, or a moldering scroll holding a 1st-level spell of your choice. Then roll on the Procure Illicit Goods table to see what happens as a result of your dealings.

PROCURE ILLICIT GOODS (MULMASTER)

d20 Result

1-3	You are caught red-handed and jailed for 1d8 days. You do not gain the item. You must spend additional downtime days to cover this jail time, but you do not spend your lifestyle costs for these days. You can avoid jail by paying 50 gp per day of jail time.
4-6	You are accosted by the city watch while making the deal. You lose 100 gp and begin the adventure at half your hit point maximum, but you manage to retain possession of the item.
7-12	You find a fence willing to sell you the item, but it's going to cost you. Make a DC 10 Charisma (Persuasion) check. If you succeed, you pay 50 gp for the item. If you fail, you pay 200 gp for the item.
13-18	You are able to swindle or fast-talk your way into obtaining the item, gaining it for free.
19-20	You manage to obtain one item for free while attempting to steal another. Make a DC 10 Dexterity (Sleight of Hand) check. If you succeed, choose two different items instead of one. You gain both of the items for free. If you fail, you instead gain one item for free.

ORCSPLITTER, PRINCES OF THE APOCALYPSE AND YOU!

Sentient weapons can create hurdles for players and DMs alike in an organized play setting. Replace the entire "Aftermath" section on page 187 of the Princes of the Apocalypse adventure with the following:

Captured members of Drannin's crew can divulge the location of the real Gargosh. He is imprisoned in a small cave on the riverbank near Yartar, locked in a large trunk with air holes and water. Gargosh can survive for four more days inside the trunk.

If the characters emerge from the dwarven crypts with Orcsplitter in their custody, the Harpers in area X5 confront them under the open sky. If the characters avoid area X5, the Harpers will track them and confront them elsewhere (the DM is encouraged to choose a thematically appropriate location based on the characters and their actions in the story thus far) within the next two days. They point out that Orcsplitter belongs in the hands of dwarven scholars. They'll first appeal to the characters' sense of altruism, but if that doesn't work, the Harpers try to arrange for a trade that allows a single character to choose one option from a list of magic items and services in exchange for Orcsplitter:

- A silver token inlaid with a porcelain dove, good for one free resurrection of that character by a Harper cleric – no questions asked
- If the character is a druid, sorcerer, or wizard, they may choose to take magical tutoring under a Harper NPC of the same class. When next the character is in a village or larger settlement they may seek out a Harper tutor. The character may select up to 30 levels of spells from their druid, sorcerer, or wizard class list of 7th level or lower from the Princes of the Apocalypse adventure or Princes of the Apocalypse Player's Companion supplement and add them to their character sheet as available spells for their class. All characters, whether they have a spellbook or not, will need to follow the rules under "Copying a Spell into the Book" as found in the Player's Handbook to complete their training. This represents the cost of the education and practice with the new materials (though wizards also scribe the spells into their spellbook as part of the learning process). NOTE: this does NOT allow a character to cast an additional 30 levels of spells; it allows a character additional spell options that might not otherwise be available (ie: a character with a different +1 resource may not otherwise have access to spells from these resources). Wizards add the spells to their spellbook and may choose to prepare them as normal for spells they have scribed. Druids add the spells to the list of spells they may prepare.

Sorcerers add the spells to the spells they may choose when leveling or replacing an old spell due to leveling. They do not immediately add the new spells to their known spells.

- A +2 weapon of the character's choosing that vibrates and flares a deep scarlet glow when within 50 feet of orcs. Against orcs, the weapon inflicts +2d6 damage. This weapon is added to the character's unlocked items list as if it were located on Magic Item Table G.
- A suit of dwarven plate. This item is added to the character's unlocked items list.
- A +1 maul named "The Smasher" that, when given the command "This celebration isn't going to start itself!", acts as a decanter of endless water but dispenses potent dwarven spirits instead. This is a unique magic item. This item is added to the character's unlocked items list as if it were located on Magic Item Table F.

If the characters are not inclined to take the Harper's offer, the Harpers are quite upset. The characters are coldly informed that Orcsplitter is entirely its own being – the ancient enchantments have given it a true personality, and it will only respond to a good-aligned dwarf, fighter, or paladin. For everyone else it will merely function as a magical silvered battleaxe with no additional benefits or properties (an unattuned Orcsplitter will stubbornly refuse to grant any of its bonuses, including hit and damage rolls adjustments, but begrudgingly admits that it is still a magical weapon). The Harpers rescind their generous offer but can be convinced to reconsider their trade offer on a successful Charisma (Persuasion) DC 20 check. A successful Wisdom (Insight) check at DC 15 reveals that the Harpers are telling the truth about the status of the legendary weapon.

If an agreement is reached, Ariana Riverlost promises to meet the characters again in two weeks, at a location chosen by them, with the agreed-upon payment.

SEASON 3. RAGE OF DEMONS

Passions are heightened in Hillsfar. Refugees from both Phlan and Mulmaster are looking for a new place to call home, and the city of Hillsfar isn't exactly known for its love of non-human people. On top of this, there is an undercurrent of demonic activity all around the region. Drow have been sighted in the vicinity, and even the myconids are acting strangely. What secrets bubble in the Underdark?

DID YOU KNOW?

The madness mechanic from the DMG is used throughout this season's adventures. Thanks to the demon princes roaming the Underdark, this has spread like wildfire and will be around for a long, long time. More information on madness can be found in the Dungeon Master's Guide.

DROWCRAFT ITEMS

During the course of Out of the Abyss, some characters may obtain drowcraft items. Such items are destroyed after prolonged exposure to sunlight.

ADJUSTMENTS TO THE OUT OF THE ABYSS HARDCOVER

The following adjustments are needed when running the OotA hardcover for Adventurers League credit:

PAGE 32: AMBUSH LAIR DISCOVERIES

d20	Discovery
18-19	A humanoid skeleton or corpse carrying a small leather pouch containing dust of disappearance .
20	A monster hoard containing 2d6 50gp gems, a potion of frost giant strength , and a pair of sending stones.

PAGE 33: MAD CREATURE POSSESSIONS

d20	Discovery
18-19	A spell scroll of spare the dying .
20	Goggles of night made out of wood, leather, and smoky-gray glass.

PAGE 34: RAIDER LEADER POSSESSIONS

d20	Discovery
20	A potion of hill giant strength .

PAGE 48: DUERGAR KEELBOAT CARGO

d20	Discovery
20	A locked iron chest containing 3d6 x 100 gp and a suit of mariner's armor (studded leather) .

Replace the paragraph following the Treasure subheading with:

Each storage building contains 2d6 crystal vials of exotic perfume worth 100 gp each, 3d6 crystal bottles of distilled beverages worth 25 gp each, and 2d6 vials of carrion crawler mucus (see “Poisons” in chapter 8 of the Dungeon Master's Guide). Characters also find 1d10 x 10 pounds of food and 1d10 x 5 gallons of water stored in each building. Finally, the characters find the following items:

- First Storage Building: Two potions of healing
- Second storage building: spell scroll of invisibility and a Potion of climbing
- Third storage building: A bag of holding, one potion of greater healing, and a spell scroll of find familiar

Replace the paragraph following the Treasure subheading with:

An iron safe stands in a corner of the storage building. The safe weighs 1,000 pounds, is locked, and contains a potion of fire breath, a spell scroll of lesser restoration, a potion of greater healing, and a lantern of revealing (without oil).

PAGE 140: SVIRFNEBLIN WAREHOUSE, AREA 6B

Replace the paragraph following the Treasure subheading with:

Half way up the southeast wall is a hidden compartment. Finding it requires a successful DC 19 Wisdom (Perception) check. The compartment contains a Quaal's feather token (swan boat), an elixir of health, and a scroll of protection from fey.

PAGE 192: GOBLIN TUNNEL

d20	Discovery
7-8	A hidden cave containing 4d8 goblins and a goblin boss , who will trade a potion of heroism in its possession for the equivalent of 30 days of food.

PAGE 210: DEATH TYRANT ENCOUNTER

Replace the paragraph following the Treasure subheading with:

If the characters defeat the death tyrant, they can plunder its hoard: 4d6 x 1,000 gp, 5d6 x 100 pp, 3d6 500 gp gems, a potion of stone giant strength, a spell scroll of greater invisibility, and a chime of opening.

Add the following paragraph to the Dawnbringer entry:

If an evil creature attempts to attune to the weapon, it not only finds it impossible, but Dawnbringer attempts to take control of its wielder (DC 14 Charisma saving throw). If the weapon is successful, it insists on being taken to the surface or willingly given to the first creature it comes across that is not a member of a race indigenous to the Underdark. Dawnbringer will not allow its relinquishment to a creature that it or its wielder knows is evil, and instead compels its wielder to find a new recipient.

IN BRUENOR'S SERVICE

In exchange for their service to Gauntlgrym, King Bruenor Battlehammer offers the characters titles, property within the dwarven city, and a single work from the Great Forge of the city.

Titles. You gain the title: Hammer of the Iron Tabernacle. When interacting with a dwarf, duergar, or another NPC familiar with the history of Gauntlgrym, you are known as a hero of legend. You have advantage on Charisma checks when interacting with these people. Additionally, among the dwarves of Gauntlgrym, you gain the benefit of the Noble background Position of Privilege feature as described in the Player's Handbook.

Property. You have been gifted a manor in the city of Gauntlgrym. While in the city, you pay only half the normal lifestyle expenses incurred while spending downtime days.

The Great Forge. The character may add a suit of adamantine or mithral armor of a type of their choosing to their unlocked items list. While wearing the armor, you have advantage on saving throws against poison and you can always successfully determine how far underground you are. This armor cannot be traded or sold once acquired.

Spoils of a Defeated Drow. Bruenor has in his possession a cloak of Arachnida which he took from a defeated drow. If a character cannot or will not take armor from the Great Forge, Bruenor will offer the cloak as an alternative. This cloak is then unlocked for that character.

SEASON 4. CURSE OF STRAHD

The atrocities committed by Vorgansharax, the Maimed Virulence, during his assault on the town of Phlan has caught the attention of other-worldly powers: the Mists of Ravenloft. After a supernaturally dense fog rolls into the area and the region is plunged into an unseasonably cold winter, the adventurers find themselves transported to Barovia, a land with no joy, sun, or hope. Can they escape?

DID YOU KNOW?

This season saw the introduction of DM Quests!

The Dark Powers will only offer to bestow Dark Gifts (and the associated free resurrection) on those level 5 and below. Other opportunities to earn Dark Gifts may exist for higher-level characters!

The standard character factions do not exist in Barovia, but they would certainly be interested in hearing of your exploits!

SPELLCASTING SERVICES ARE DIFFERENT

The DDAL04 series of adventures in Ravenloft use spellcasting services that are quite different from their Faerûnian counterparts. DMs running the Curse of Strahd hardcover are encouraged to use these setting-specific services but may choose either method.

More information can be found in the Curse of Strahd Player's Guide.

SEASON 4. CURSE OF STRAHD GUIDANCE

The mysterious Dark Powers of Ravenloft have sent the Mists through Phlan, Glumpen Swamp, and the Quivering Forest. Large portions of those areas along with their residents have been transported to the dread domain of Barovia.

STORY ITEMS, DARK GIFTS, AND NEW ITEMS

If the characters acquire any of the following items during their play of the Curse of Strahd hardcover adventure, they may use them as they see fit. These items are forever bound to the Dark Powers and to Count Strahd von Zarovich himself, though, so they cannot leave this realm.

The story items for Curse of Strahd include:

- Holy Symbol of Ravenkind
- Icon of Ravenloft
- Saint Markovia's Thighbone
- Sunsword
- Tome of Strahd

Furthermore, various Dark Gifts can be earned throughout a character's career and adventures in Barovia. Regardless of how the Dark Gift was earned (the most common options being character death or a bargain made in the Amber Temple), all Dark Gifts immediately fade if the character leaves Barovia. Their deals are intended to incentivize and tempt mortals into staying here, and those gifts do not return if the character finds a way back to this dark realm.

Story Item & Dark Gift guidance is retroactive.

DEMIPLANE OF DREAD (STORY AWARD)

A character that enters Barovia for any reason immediately earns the Demiplane of Dread story award. Any character that possesses this story award cannot leave Ravenloft (Barovia is but a single domain in the demiplane) or play any Dungeons & Dragons adventures that are not set in Barovia or elsewhere in Ravenloft.

HAUNTED ONE BACKGROUND

Choosing the Haunted One background (CoS) does not count as choosing a +1 resource.

LEAVING BAROVIA ("BAREXIT")

There are several opportunities in the DDAL adventures for the characters to leave Barovia. However, if a character wishes to leave and has not discovered one of those methods, they may use the following guidance:

DOWNTIME ACTIVITY: ESCAPE THE MISTS

A character with the Demiplane of Dread story award can gain the Escape the Mists story award after paying 20 Downtime days to leave Ravenloft. The Downtime day cost is modified as follows:

+10 Downtime Days. Touched by the Mists – For each time the character has died, been brought back to life by the mists, and gained the Touched by the Mists story award.

+5 Downtime Days. Enmity of Jeny Greenteeth – A character with the Enmity of Jeny Greenteeth story award (from DDAL04-06 The Ghost) has not only angered the hag but the mists themselves.

+5 Downtime Days. You Murderer – A character with the You Murderer story award (from DDAL04-08 The Broken One) has killed villagers of Oraşnou. The Dark Powers' grip on them is tight.

+5 Downtime Days. Cursed by Greed – A character with the Cursed by Greed story award (from DDAL04-09 The Tempter) has given in to greed at the behest of the Dark Powers. Leaving Ravenloft will be difficult as a result.

+10 Downtime Days. Escape the Mists – Each time a character escapes the mists, but then returns to Barovia, escaping again gets progressively harder. If a character does not have enough Downtime days to escape the mists, they are stuck in Barovia forever. To gain downtime days, a player should play more Curse of Strahd adventures or be a Dungeon Master to gain DM rewards to award to a character to escape Barovia.

LUCKBLADE

A fortunate group of adventurers may discover a luckblade on their travels. Despite rumors spread by adventurers of yore, it functions as a normal luckblade, though upon being claimed by a new owner, a new blade manifests from the hilt—taking the form of whatever type of sword its owner wishes. Once the weapon's form has been chosen, it can't be changed.

DO I HAVE THE DEMIPLANE OF DREAD STORY AWARD?

As implied in the Death in Ravenloft sidebar (ALDMG), if you play a session of Curse of Strahd or DDLE4 Death House you're trapped in Barovia. While not explicitly stated in the sidebar, you gain the following story award upon entering Barovia:

DEMIPLANE OF DREAD (STORY AWARD)

You have traversed the mists and now find yourself in the Demiplane of Dread and, until this story award is removed, you are unable to leave. So long as you are trapped, you cannot participate in any adventure or event that takes place outside of Barovia. Tread carefully during your time here, the Dark Powers are watching.

ADJUSTMENTS TO THE CURSE OF STRAHD HARDCOVER

The following adjustments are needed when running the CoS hardcover for Adventurers League credit:

PAGE 22: LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION FROM THE ERAVIEN HAUND

Despite Haund's presumptions, the werewolves move to and from Barovia by Strahd's will alone, and not via a portal. If the adventurers are successful in determining this (this will require some creativity, or an odd series of circumstances to occur), they are rewarded as stated in the adventure. The letter of recommendation promised grants the bearer use of the Position of Privilege feature from the Noble background. If the bearer also has the Noble background, they have advantage on any Charisma related skill checks they make when using the letter for this purpose. The letter of recommendation is only useful in any regard, when on the Sword Coast.

PAGE 22: SPECIAL FAVOR FROM DAVRA JASSUR

In exchange for returning the head of Kiril Stoyanovich (see Pack Attack, Page 171), Davra is exceedingly pleased. Any characters that are members of the Zhentarim earn the following story award:

SPECIAL FAVOR: THE BLACK NETWORK

Davra Jassur commands much respect within the Black Network, and dropping her name could yield favorable results—even from those who are unaffiliated with the Zhentarim. This story award may be redeemed for one of the following: a common spell scroll (1st level spell), two vials of poison, five flasks of holy water, or the service of silvering one melee weapon (the weapon to be silvered must be purchased separately). This story award is removed when used.

PAGE 37, TSEER POOL ENCAMPMENT TREASURE

There are six tents and four wagons for a total of 10 possible (although statistically-unlikely) results that include a magic item. If the result is a 20, the characters find one of the items below. Roll 1d20 and consult the list below; ignoring results from previous rolls.

D20 MAGIC ITEM FOUND

NUMBER	ITEM
1-5	Potion of Greater Healing
6	Potion of Fire Breath . This clear, red fluid has a smoldering chunk of coal floating within. The heat of this almost-boiling potion can be felt even through the thick glass bottle it is contained in.
7	Ten +1 crossbow bolts . The bolts have bone shafts with thrice-bladed, cold-iron heads.
8	A wooden screw-top canister containing four doses of Keoghtom's ointment . Anyone upon whom the ointment is applied smells like freshly dug earth for 1 hour.
9	Potion of Hill Giant Strength . The potion can only be consumed by first destroying the stopper-less ceramic pot it is contained in. The potion tastes foul and has the consistency of curdled milk, with hints of blood, sweat, and grime.
10	Mithral half-plate . This suit of armor is decorated with elegant woodland motif. The green woolen cape affixed to the armor's shoulders never catches on burrs or branches while traveling through the forest.
11	Potion of Lightning Resistance . The potion in this glass vial is crystal clear, and a number of small iron beads have settled at the bottom.
12	Bag of Holding . This tattered and patched bag lets forth a terrible scream whenever it is opened, audible to anyone within 100 feet.
13	A silver snuffbox containing what appears to be fine tobacco (actually dust of sneezing and choking).
14	An ugly hat made of tattered brown wool. It functions as a helm of comprehend languages .

- | | |
|----|---|
| 15 | Potion of Necrotic Resistance. This milky potion has a small human tooth floating within it that must be swallowed as part of drinking the potion. |
| 16 | A silver vial carved to resemble a fish. It contains oil of slipperiness . When used, the oil reeks of rotting fish and kelp, a smell that cannot be cleaned or masked while the oil is in effect. |
| 17 | A spell scroll of hold person. |
| 18 | A fist-sized emerald inscribed with the symbol of the Cult of the Crushing Wave (an elemental gem). |
| 19 | A small steel flask containing a potion of growth. The flask has the initials “AB” engraved upon it. |
| 20 | A spell scroll of haste. |

PAGE 63: KING’S ACCOUNTANT

Using the manual of bodily health requires the owner to expend 6 downtime days, after which the owner gains the manual’s benefit. Once this happens, the manual crumbles to ash and is lost forever. Only the owner of the manual may benefit from its use.

PAGE 88: CRYPT 13

The musket provided here is an oddity in Faerûn and may not be replicated or repaired. It is available for purchase for 4 treasure checkpoints. This item cannot be sold. A character proficient with smith’s tools can spend 3 gp to craft 10 bullets, but black powder doesn’t function in Faerûn, so smokepowder must be used instead. Once purchased, this weapon is no longer unlocked, but smokepowder packets (see below) is added to the character’s evergreen unlock list. Ammunition and gunpowder can’t be purchased otherwise. Smokepowder unlocked in this way isn’t suitable for any purpose other to fire this weapon (i.e. NO explosives may be crafted, etc).

SMOKEPOWDER PACKET

Wondrous item, uncommon

This magical explosive is used to propel a bullet out of the barrel of a firearm. It is stored in tiny, waterproof leather packets. A packet contains enough smokepowder for five shots. Casting dispel magic on smokepowder renders it permanently inert.

A packet of smokepowder can be purchased for 1 treasure checkpoint by any character. Once found, this item goes on a character’s evergreen list of available items.

PAGE 187: ARCHITECT’S ROOM

Using the tome of understanding requires the owner to expend 6 downtime days, after which the owner gains the tome’s benefit. Once this happens, the tome is consumed in brilliant, divine flames (dealing no damage). When the flames die, the tome is gone, never to return. Only the owner of the tome may benefit from its use.

The Amber Sarcophagi sidebar is amended as follows:

Add the following after the third paragraph: “Dungeon and Dragons Adventurers League DMs should ensure that players fully understand the risk inherent in dealing with such powerful—and wholly evil—entities.

DMs will provide the following as a warning to your players prior to their decision to accept a dark gift:

“Accepting a gift from an entity of pure, ancient evil does not come without tremendous risk. While you stand to gain terrible power, it is possible that your character may forever surrender their soul to a being of ultimate darkness. Should this happen, your character shall become an NPC under the control of the Dark Powers—and therefore unplayable in future Adventurers League adventures—until they no longer possess the dark gift, which could be a very long time. Once your decision is made, there is no turning back. Do you accept the gift?”

Add the following after the fifth paragraph:

“Dark gifts that have a finite duration (i.e., one year, 30 days, etc.) last for the specified amount of time in the real-world. That is to say that if a character receives a dark gift that lasts for one year, that character loses the dark gift and all its effects one calendar year from the date that the gift was annotated on the character’s Adventure Logsheet. A character may accept and be affected by only one dark gift. If a character with a dark gift attempts to accept another from a different vestige, their requests go unanswered.

Add the following to the last paragraph of the “Amber Sarcophagi” sidebar.

“A character that fails the saving throw above is possessed by a fragment of the vestige and changes the moral aspect of their alignment (good, neutral, or evil) to evil. If they are now lawful evil, they can choose to continue playing that character. If they are a member of any faction other than the Lords Alliance or Zhentarim, they are immediately expelled from that faction and lose all renown. If they are now either neutral evil or chaotic evil their character is removed from D&D Adventurers League play unless they are the unwitting recipient of a wish—removing their dark gift, and changing their alignment back to what it was prior to receiving the dark gift. There is no saving throw against the wish spell, but the adventurer would never actively seek to change themselves back. Adventurers that fail their saving throw gain the following story award:

CONSUMED BY ABSOLUTE DARKNESS

You have accepted the gift of evil and paid the price. You have been possessed by the vestige of a dead and wholly evil god. For so long as this vestige possesses your mortal body, you may not participate in any D&D Adventurers League adventure. Instead, the vestige—free from its imprisonment—uses your body to wreak havoc upon the land. This lasts for one year and one day of time in the real world, at which time, the character is restored to their original alignment and for some reason unknown to them (possibly divine intervention) the dark gift has been removed. After the dark gift has been removed, the character has disadvantage on all Charisma-related checks when interacting with NPCs anywhere in the Realms. After 10 adventures, assuming no wrongdoing, their reputation is restored and this penalty is removed. The dark gift may be removed earlier, but only by a wish spell cast by another character.

SPECIAL MAGIC ITEMS

Several examples exist inside the pages of Curse of Strahd that have abilities above and beyond those abilities normally located in the PHB and DMG. An example of such an item is below:

Plantslayer battleaxe. The name is unofficial but is an accurate summary of the item's abilities. Once the characters have encountered this item, it can be purchased as it were located on magic item table F.

SEASON 5. STORM KING'S THUNDER

The Adventurers League moves to the Sword Coast!

The Ordning – the political configuration that determines who rules the various giant tribes – has been shattered! Chaos reigns as each tribe scrambles to claim power, and the unwitting people of the Sword Coast are caught in the mix. The adventurers must face off against obese hill giants and cunning cloud giants, and defeat the fire giant armies for the protection of the entire region.

DID YOU KNOW?

SEER is a title, not a name. And Hsing – SEER's pseudodragon companion – is more than he appears to be. Expect further development for them in upcoming seasons!

Giants and dwarves have long been aggressive towards each other. Several adventures this season actually explore this lore and history.

SEASON 5. STORM KING'S THUNDER GUIDANCE

As the giants seek to find new leadership in the wake of a disaster, heroes and villains from across the Forgotten Realms become embroiled in the political machinations of the warring clans.

STORY ITEMS AND NEW ITEMS

The story items for Storm King's Thunder include:

H	Ingot of the Skold Rune, Pennant of the Vind Rune, Shard of the Ise Rune

BLOD STONE DIAMOND

The process that converts a 5,000 gp diamond into a blod stone results in a priceless magic item. A blod stone cannot be sold for gp.

A TRESSYM! I CAN HAS?

Yes and no. the find familiar spell provides a specific list of creatures that can be conjured by the spell. Although the adventure suggests it, D&D Adventurers League DMs don't have the discretion to modify that list. However, play often and you may come across campaign documentation (such as a certificate or story award) that will let you conjure a tressym of your very own using find familiar.

RUNE ITEMS

Applying one of the various runes found in the Season 5 adventures turns a mundane item into a permanent magic item. The rune can be applied to any mundane item that you own or can permanently keep at the end of an adventure or session. If the item isn't found under a treasure subheading, it follows the normal rules for mundane treasure and isn't an eligible item for the transference of a rune.

When a rune is used in this way, the rune is consumed in the process and the listed effect takes place. This function can only be used by a character that has purchased a rune with treasure points. Any item so affected by a rune is considered to be located on magic item table F for purposes of trading magic items with other characters.

- Ingot of the Skold Rune
- Opal of the Ild Rune
- Orb of the Stein Rune
- Pennant of the Vind Rune
- Shard of the Ise Rune

SANSURI'S SIMULACRUM

This spell does not have a full description. As such, it cannot be learned by characters.

ROLLING FOR TREASURE

If the adventure directs you to choose a magic item, instead roll on the appropriate magic item table. You are encouraged to take the current party configuration into account when you do this.

Players should record the item name, adventure and chapter, location, magic item table, and the result when this roll is made. This represents the data needed in order for this item to be considered unlocked for purchase.

After rolling, the item is unlocked for a one-time purchase. No magic item is handed out unless it has been purchased.

A GREAT UPHEAVAL & MILESTONES

Milestones are not used by the D&D Adventurers League. Please consult the ALDMG for rules on how to award experience and treasure checkpoints.

LODESTONE

As a magic item, the lodestone cannot be sold for gp.

THE HIDDEN SHRINE OF TAMOACHAN

The Hidden Shrine of Tamoachan requires additional rulings if it is to be played for Adventurers League credit:

SLEEPING POISON

The text of the poison declares that an affected creature sleeps for 10,000 years. For Adventurers League play, the creature is asleep until they receive a greater restoration spell or similar magic as described by the text.

TOMB OF HORRORS

Tomb of Horrors requires additional rulings if it is to be played for Adventurers League credit:

WHAT DO THE CHARACTERS FIND IN ACERERAK'S VAULT?

The Tomb of Horrors is an iconic dungeon with many years of history and lore. It is also filled with terrible artifacts of death and drek. This guidance is retroactive—it affects sessions run prior to the issuance of this FAQ.

Spheres of Annihilation. The effects resembling spheres of annihilation in the green devil faces in the Tomb of Horrors are traps; they can't be controlled or claimed as treasure.

Acererak's Hoard. Under the treasure subheading on page 227 of TYP, replace "(except that none can be of legendary rarity)" with: "(except all items must be uncommon, rare, or very rare, and may include no more than one manual or tome—it seems that the demilich's library has long ago rotted away)".

EFREETI WISHES

If the efreeti is released from its prison in the Tomb of Horrors, it might grant three wishes. Note that this is not the wish spell, and it is limited in what it can create or deliver – in no case can the effect a wish that it grants last beyond the end of this game session.

SPELLCASTING GEM?

A certain cursed gem will invariably harm those that cast wish from it, and because it tells the holder that it can cast wish... what reason might the character have to not use it? Also, any character caught in the gem's explosion is permanently killed and is retired from Adventurers League play.

THIS STAFF OF THE MAGI...

... is broken beyond repair. Not even a wish spell can save it in D&D Adventurers League play.

SHATTERSPIKE

Shatterspike can't be used to destroy magic items, unless the item itself specifically provides an AC, hit points, etc. in its description.

WHAT DO I DO WITH BLACKRAZOR, WAVE, AND WHELM?

In White Plume Mountain, the characters are hired to retrieve three legendary weapons (Blackrazor, Wave, and Whelm) that have been stolen. The book is vague regarding the payment—for Adventurers League, the three owners reward the characters. Only weapons turned in while the character is present count for that individual character. Additionally, as ownership of permanent magic items is determined at the end of the session, returning the weapon and claiming the reward must be done before the end of the session. This may necessitate some suspension of disbelief if the “turn in” magically happens while the characters are in the middle of a dungeon.

This guidance is retroactive; it affects sessions run prior to the issuance of this FAQ.

1. First Weapon Returned. 2,000 gp for each character in the party, and each character may choose three rare consumables (following normal rules for the number of pieces of magical ammunition). A character could, for example, choose a potion of superior healing, a spell scroll of greater restoration, and 1d6 +2 crossbow bolts.

2. Second Weapon Returned. Each character may choose one of the following items: arrow catching shield, bracers of defense, canaith mandolin, necklace of prayer beads (with six beads), staff of the woodlands, +2 wand of the war mage, or a +2 weapon.

3. Third Weapon Returned. Each character receives three renown points and records the completion of a secret mission for their faction.

I Don't Wanna Surrender It! First, ending a session without returning one of the weapons denies the group from receiving any reward associated with it—drag. The worst part, however, is that the character that chooses to retain ownership is too busy running and hiding from the forces that pursue it, or simply spending all their time busy being dead. Such characters are retired from play.

This involuntary retirement can be cut short by surrendering the stolen weapon. In-so-doing, the weapon is removed from their character (reducing their magic item count), but they don't receive the reward associated with turning it in, above. Sometimes, no reward is a reward in its own right. Characters should be made aware of this before they decide to keep a weapon.

DEAD IN THAY & SOUL-BOUND UNDEAD

If a character is raised as soul-bound undead in Dead in Thay, they are immediately retired from play if they leave the Doomvault without destroying Kazit Gul (and thus, the Doomvault), figuring out how to correctly use the Undying Laboratory, or receiving a wish to end this effect—even true resurrection is unable to wrest the adventurer's soul from Szass Tam's terrible grasp.

DUNGEON CRAWLS & LEVEL BANDS

The dungeons in the Tales from the Yawning Portal were designed with specific level ranges in mind, but for Adventurers League play these level ranges are modified to incorporate the entire target tier. Dead in Thay is the dungeon that is most deeply impacted by this.

- Sunless Citadel – tier 1 (target level 1)
- Forge of Fury – tier 1 (target level 3)
- Hidden Shrine of Tamoachan – tier 2 (target level 5)
- White Plume Mountain – tier 2 (target level 8)
- Dead in Thay – tier 2 (target level 9)
- Against the Giants – tier 3 (target level 11)
- Tomb of Horrors – tier 3 (target level 13)

Unlike previous hardcovers where a character could be anywhere from level 1 to 10 in order to participate, characters will need to be in the appropriate tier for their chosen adventure from Tales from the Yawning Portal.

DUNGEON CRAWLS? IN MY D&D?!

The dungeon crawls presented in Tales from the Yawning Portal are by and large taken from older content and updated to the 5th edition of the rules. There are hints of Greyhawk and other campaign worlds contained therein, but the Adventurers League content takes place in the Forgotten Realms. To that end, the admin team assembled a series of “Hooks” articles to get players excited about the adventures that lay before them.

- Hooks: Sunless Citadel
- Hooks: Forge of Fury
- Hooks: Hidden Shrine of Tamoachan
- Hooks: White Plume Mountain
- Hooks: Dead in Thay
- Hooks: Against the Giants
- Hooks: Tomb of Horrors

These hooks are not required, but you may find them very helpful – they even include some handy DM guidance!

SEASON 7. TOMB OF ANNIHILATION

The dread lich Acererak has made a bid for the souls of every creature in creation. His terrible plot begins in the jungles of Chult in the far southern reaches of Faerûn and can be felt across every plane of existence. Death is finally permanent; not even the gods can still his arcane plans.

Our heroes will brave dinosaurs, necromantic wizards, strange goblins, and deathtraps galore as they unravel the mysteries of this ancient place. A place where the gods refuse to tread, and a place where familiar faces long thought lost will appear.

Season 7 of the Adventurers League is a desperate race against time as the recently resurrected find themselves succumbing to a wasting rot and Acererak toys with powers from beyond our understanding!

Did You Know?

The lost language of Old Omuan is indeed that: lost. Not even the residents of Chult know how to speak it.

The legend of Dendar the Night Serpent and her prophesied final battle with Ubtao is woven into the cultures of Chult – but it remains to be seen just what Acererak’s plans for them may be. These are the only two deities of the jungle peninsula; it is truly a place forgotten by the world, and one where even the gods refuse to tread.

SEASON 7. TOMB OF ANNIHILATION GUIDANCE

A vile death curse has grasped the world in darkness, slowing draining the life from those that returned from death and preventing any additional restorations. The source has been tracked to Chult, and the demilich Acererak has a plethora of traps and minions waiting for heroes that dare challenge him!

STORY ITEMS, AWARDS, AND NEW ITEMS

DEATH CURSE

Now that the Adventurers League has moved on to season 8, the Death Curse is only in effect for Season 7 adventures (see Season 7. Adventure List for a full listing).

MEATGRINDER MODE

Meatgrinder mode provides no benefit for characters in D&D Adventurers League play.

ITEMS OF THE TRICKSTER GODS

The spirits of the dead trickster gods are bound into their personal items as-noted in the adventure text. For Adventurers League usage, they also follow the Story Items rules – for example, if someone cannot return for the next game, the item can be assigned by the DM to another character... and that character may potentially become possessed. Every time the item transfers to another person, there is a chance that the spirit may possess the new host or wielder.

Additionally, if the characters successfully complete the adventure and break the death curse, the spirits of the trickster gods may decide to allow these items to leave the tomb. If they do, a character may take purchase the item using the item's normal point cost (see the ALPG) but they also gain any additional qualities that the item had as one of the trickster god's personal items. The spirit of the trickster god is not a magic item, and their granted abilities do not exist outside of the tomb.

SPIRITS OF THE TRICKSTER GODS

If a character is possessed by a trickster god and they leave the tomb, neither the spirit nor their granted abilities (including traits) travel with the character. The spirit does not return automatically when next the character enters the tomb, though they could wield or wear the god's associated item, which may result in the character becoming possessed once more.

QUIRKY MAGICAL ITEMS

Several items in the pages of Tomb of Annihilation have additional effects or qualities beyond those normally ascribed to that type of magic item. These items may be purchased as if they were on their normal magic item table. Below are two examples of such items, though others exist

Bob. The qualities possessed by Bob are within the realm of powers listed in the What Minor Property Does It Have? In the DMG. This item can be acquired as if it were on magic item table F.

Devlin's staff of striking. The peculiar curse on this staff does not prevent it from being acquired or used. Be sure to read the item's description carefully! This item can be acquired as it were located on magic item table H.

Syndra Silvane's reward. Syndra does not award the item directly and instead unlocks the chosen item to be purchased at the character's discretion. Each item unlocked in this manner is unlocked for all characters in the party.

YAKA THE GOLDEN SKULL

The adventure text in Tomb of Annihilation calls out a specific gp value in gems that Yaka must consume before he leaves the characters alone. For Adventurers League purposes, Keshma al-Wazir the dao can create this amount of treasure or the characters can provide it to Yaka. It is important to note that Yaka is concerned a story award and is not capable of leaving the season 7 content.

KESHMA AL-WAZIR THE DAO

While Keshma potentially does offer spellcasting to aid the characters, she is not capable of granting wishes other than to break the curse of Yaka, the Golden Skull.

WHAT'S A GUILD ADEPT?

A Guild Adept is a highly proficient content creator that was chosen by Wizards of the Coast to provide supplemental material for the hardcover adventure. This content can take many forms, and while not all of that content will be approved for organized play, it can still be used for great home games and inspiration for your players and you, the Dungeon Master! In most cases, Guild Adept content counts as part of the hardcover

SEASON 8. DRAGON HEIST & DUNGEON OF THE MAD MAGE

Waterdeep is the biggest city in the Forgotten Realms and is full-to-bursting with adventuring opportunities... and you're there, too. The famed Volothamp Geddarm, fresh from some far-flung travel, has extended a job offer to you – one that will either cement your status as a hero of the Realms as you unravel a villainous plot, or that will see you dead (or worse).

Later, you have the opportunity to delve into the famed halls of Undermountain. This place is the home of the Mad Mage Halaster Blackcloak and contains tricks, traps, adversaries and allies that you've never imagined!

Did You Know?

Waterdeep: Dragon Heist actually has 4 distinct play opportunities contained inside its covers. Each season of the year and new villain brings a completely different feel to the City of Splendors and your roleplaying opportunities!

Dungeon of the Mad Mage was written by the D&D Adventurers League administrators with the aid of several trusted allies. You can expect to see some familiar sights, shocking twists, and intermingled story hooks that may take you well beyond your ordinary game night.

SEASON 8. DRAGON HEIST & DUNGEON OF THE MAD MAGE GUIDANCE

The treasures of the City of Splendors are plentiful – especially for the villains that have set their sights on them! Explore the wards of Waterdeep as you unravel a plot that will either see you part of history or erased from it entirely.

UNLOCKED ITEMS

The following items are considered unlocked during season 8. The ALPG gives more guidance on costs and how to purchase these items with your treasure checkpoints. When the next season begins, these items are no longer considered to be unlocked and will need to be unlocked through gameplay as per normal.

MAGIC ITEMS UNLOCKED FOR THE DURATION OF SEASON 8

PISTOLS AND SMOKEPOWDER

Throughout the adventure there are several chances to discover a pistol or smokepowder. A pistol is an oddity in Faerûn and may not be replicated, repaired, or sold. It is available for purchase for 2 treasure checkpoints. A character proficient with smith's tools can spend 3 gp to craft 10 bullets, but black powder doesn't function in Faerûn, so smokepowder must be used instead. Once purchased, this weapon is no longer unlocked, but smokepowder packets (see below) is added to the character's evergreen unlock list. Ammunition and gunpowder can't be purchased otherwise. Smokepowder unlocked in this way isn't suitable for any purpose other to fire this weapon (i.e. NO explosives may be crafted, etc).

SMOKEPOWDER PACKET

Wondrous item, uncommon

This magical explosive is used to propel a bullet out of the barrel of a firearm. It is stored in tiny, waterproof leather packets. A packet contains enough smokepowder for five shots. Casting dispel magic on smokepowder renders it permanently inert.

A packet of smokepowder can be purchased for 1 treasure checkpoint by any character. Once found, this item goes on a character's evergreen list of available items.

MARKS OF PRESTIGE

If the characters would earn a mark of prestige during the adventure, they should work with their DM on the particulars of that gift. Feats are not a valid choice for this reward.

WORK IN PROGRESS?

The Embers of the Last War series is based on the work-in-progress Eberron book, Wayfinder's Guide to Eberron. The rules for the campaign setting are not yet finalized and the characters used here cannot be used elsewhere (in in other Adventurers League campaigns).

COMMUNITY-CREATED CONTENT

The Community-Created Content – or “CCC” - project is something that we, the D&D Adventurers League administrators, feel very strongly about: it gives a measure of creative control of the Moonsea region and a significant amount of personal ownership of the campaign to the players and DMs that use this content. Conventions and similar venues are invited to apply for permission to create and develop new CCC adventures. This creates new play experiences for people all over the world while driving attention to their own convention or event (and may make them a little coin in the process).

The CCC adventure design process is fairly open in that the AL administrators provide review for major plot and thematic elements but only rarely provide full critique of the submission. Some things to keep in mind during your creation process:

- adventures must be appropriate for all audiences; some parental guidance is okay
- CCC adventures aren’t eligible for some DM Quests
- adventures must be 2 or 4 hours in duration
- adventures must be based in the greater Moonsea area; refer to the image below for a general sense of available places

Did You Know?

The general vicinity of the Moonsea is eligible for CCC proposals, but you are not limited to only those cities, towns, and dungeons that are on the current maps – why not make your own? Or craft a community-centric event as part of your pitch? The Moonsea is a wild place, rife with change and cultural shifts – base your adventure on those shores and let your imagination run wild.

We offer communication avenues, official certificate generation, resource and plot assistance, and more. Just reach out!

The sky’s the limit, so let’s make this memorable for players all over the world!
