The Commando Subacqui ed IncurSION, is Italy's equivalent of the SBS or SEAL's and is recruited in much the same way from the Marines. The Italians have a long tradition of underwater warfare with many successful operations in WW2. Indeed they pioneered the concept of 'frogmen' and 'human torpedoes' (SDVs). This unit is very highly regarded in the SF community. Requires San Marco package with Airborne option.

The alpine units of the Italian Army are some of the best mountain warfare units in the world. Much of their training deals with behind-the-line guerrilla and anti-guerrilla warfare. Even their artillery is specialized for mountain warfare, consisting of Pack Howitzers which can be easily disassembled and man transported up the roughest slopes. Requires Infantry package.

The Grupo de Interventio Speciale is Italy's primary counter-terrorist unit with most of the 100 members coming from the Folgore. In addition to classic CT operations, they are also heavily involved in anti-organized crime operations (critics call for this units to be disbanded and the NOCS expanded to deal with these primarily law enforcement situations). Requires Folgore package.
