INTRODUCTION

Welcome to Index: Imperium 1, one of five tomes which together contain updated rules for every unit of miniatures in Warhammer 40,000. If you have an army of Space Marines, Blood Angels, Dark Angels, Space Wolves, Deathwatch, Grey Knights or Legion of the Damned, this volume allows you to field your models in the new edition of Warhammer 40,000.

Within these pages are detailed rules entries, known as datasheets, for every Citadel Miniature within the Space Marines, Blood Angels, Dark Angels, Space Wolves, Deathwatch, Grey Knights and Legion of the Damned Factions. When taken together with the Warhammer 40,000 rulebook, you will have everything you need to field the Adeptus Astartes on the battlefield. The wisdom contained within allows you to lead the Emperor's finest warriors into battle, the better to defend the Imperium of Man from the horrors of a hostile galaxy.

The Space Marines are the Emperor's finest warriors, each worth at least ten lesser men. Possessing specialist warriors and war machines tailored to every aspect of warfare, it is the resilience, the courage and the martial might of these superhuman warriors that allows the Imperium to endure. Now, with the addition of the Primaris Space Marines to their ranks, the Adeptus Astartes are mightier than ever before. While many Space Marine Chapters follow the tenets of the sacred Codex Astartes, there are those who practise their own, more specialised ways of war. From the tragically noble Blood Angels and the secretive, deadly Dark Angels, to the feral warriors of the Space Wolves, each such Chapter has its own unique strengths. The Grey Knights, meanwhile, are the Imperium's finest Daemon hunters, masters of counter-malefic warfare, while the Deathwatch are the vigilant blade that strikes down the xenos threat. Strangest of all are the Legion of the Damned, mysterious and ghostly Space Marines wreathed in spectral fire, who strike from nowhere when the hour seems darkest for the Adeptus Astartes and vanish without a trace of their passing.

INSIDE YOU WILL FIND:

- Army Lists: The first fifteen sections of this book present all of the datasheets that you will need in order to use your Space Marines miniatures in games of Warhammer 40,000, along with the additional rules and psychic disciplines that make each of these Factions unique.
- Battle-forged Armies: This presents a guide on how to organise your miniatures into an army for matched play games, including photocopyable Army Roster sheets.
- Appendix: This section contains all of the profiles and rules for the weapons and wargear carried by the units covered in this book, as well as all of the points values you will need to use your army in matched play games.

'They shall be my finest warriors, these men who give themselves to me.

Like clay I shall mould them and in the furnace of war I shall forge them.

They will be of iron will and steely muscle.

In great armour shall I clad them and with the mightiest guns shall they be armed.

They will be untouched by plague or disease, no sickness will blight them.

They will have tactics, strategies and machines such that no foe will best them in battle.

They are my bulwark against the Terror.

They are the Defenders of Humanity.

They are my Space Marines

...and they shall know no fear?

- The Emperor of Mankind

ADEPTUS ASTARTES

The Adeptus Astartes are the Imperium's Angels of Death. They descend from the skies upon trails of fire to bring swift and bloody destruction to the enemies of Mankind, sweeping the corruption of Chaos and the spoor of the xenos foe from the galaxy with bolter and chainsword. No conquest is beyond them, for they are the Space Marines, and they know no fear.

The Space Marines are superhuman warriors who can trace their lineage to the golden era of Mankind's ascension. Each is an echo of the strength of the Primarchs, the demi-gods that served as the Emperor's generals during the expansion of the Imperium. Ten thousand years ago the Space Marines were organised into Legions, each containing many thousands of warriors. At the height of their power, the Legiones Astartes was a force whose might was unmatched in all the galaxy. Then the unthinkable happened. Horus, Primarch of the Luna Wolves, raised his banner in rebellion, and fully half of the Primarchs and their Legions followed him into damnation. The glorious future of Mankind was lost to betrayal and heresy, and the Emperor was brought low by the hand of Horus, his favoured son.

Yet those loyal Primarchs who survived the Horus Heresy refused to abandon the work of their gene-father. Roboute Guilliman, Primarch of the Ultramarines, created the Codex Astartes, a document of strategy and organisational doctrine that would define the future of the Space Marines. In what has become known as the Second Founding, the Legions of old were disassembled, and in their place rose the Adeptus Astartes, a new fighting force consisting of smaller Space Marine Chapters each comprising no more than a thousand souls. Never again would a single commander wield the awesome destructive power of an entire Legion. In the millennia since this momentous event, the warriors of the Adeptus Astartes have embraced their destiny, fighting against impossible odds to save the Imperium of Man from anarchy and chaos.

The gene-seed that transforms an Adeptus Astartes initiate from mortal warrior to legendary champion is part of the Emperor's own arcane science, and it bestows a suite of superhuman abilities upon those who survive the implantation process. Each battle-brother harbours within him not only this inheritance from the Primarchs, but a score of strange biological organs that lend him the strength to tear a man limb from limb, and the resilience to survive serious injury. A Space Marine can breathe underwater, enter a hibernation state, learn of the foe by consuming his flesh, survive in the cold vacuum of space and even spit acid should the need arise.

Recruited in the prime of his youth, the Space Marine is not only transformed physically by his Chapter's induction process, but mentally and even spiritually. Under extensive autohypnotic suggestion, prolonged meditation and extensive psychological training, his mind is transformed into a fortress of surety, enabling him to wage endless war in a hostile universe and still retain his sanity. A Space Marine can operate at the height of his mental faculties even in the direst circumstances. His soul too is strengthened by this process; under the guidance of his designated company's Chaplain, a Space Marine is kept sharp and true no matter the horrors that he is called upon to face – or to commit.

Already transformed into a living weapon, the Space Marine is made deadlier still by heirloom wargear bestowed upon him in great ceremony. After the implantation of the interface known as the black carapace, he bonds with a suit of advanced power armour that further increases his strength and makes him all but invulnerable to small arms fire. There are even records of Space Marines shrugging off direct hits from anti-tank weaponry and fighting on to cut down the impertinent foe.

Foremost amongst the weapons of the Adeptus Astartes is the bolter, a form of which is bequeathed to all Space Marines at one time or another as they advance through the Chapter. This is a sacred weapon with a fierce and often ancient machine spirit. The self-propelled shells it fires detonate after penetrating the target, causing horrendous damage from within. And this is but the most basic of tools available to the Chapters; at their disposal is an arsenal of devastating weaponry, as well as a massive armoury of battle tanks, gunships, bikes and skimmers to bear them to battle.

A NEW GENERATION

In an event that sent shock waves across the galaxy, the Primarch Roboute Guilliman – who for many centuries had lain in temporal stasis on the Ultramarines' home planet of Macragge – was awoken from his slumber to bestride the Imperium once more. With his miraculous resurrection came another momentous event. Ten thousand years ago, the Archmagos Belisarius Cawl was tasked by Guilliman with the creation of a new army, a force of genetically enhanced warriors mightier even than the noble Space Marines. Hidden away in his sprawling forge-complexes deep beneath the surface of Mars, Cawl lost himself in experimentation, creating countless technological wonders and refining the gene-seed. Now, after playing a crucial role in the Primarch's return, he has unleashed his most miraculous creation: the Primaris Space Marines. Taller and stronger than the last generation of Adeptus Astartes, the warriors of this new breed are clad in advanced Mark X power armour and wield devastating new weaponry.

Recognising the dire threats facing the Imperium, Roboute Guilliman swiftly deployed the new-found Primaris Space Marines in an event known as the Ultima Founding. Alongside several new Chapters comprised entirely of these peerless warriors, many existing Chapters found their ranks bolstered by Primaris reinforcements. Currently, the Codex-compliant Chapters of the Adeptus Astartes adhere to the time-honoured directives of that hallowed tome, deploying the Primaris Space Marines as battleline troops. There are whispers, though, that Guilliman, the reinstated Lord Commander of the Imperium, is already turning his ingenious mind towards codifying a new tactical doctrine – one that will ensure that the enhanced combat prowess and advanced weaponry of the Primaris Space Marines are utilised to the most devastating effect.

CHAPTER ORGANISATION

Guilliman's Codex Astartes was designed to prevent a disaster like the Horus Heresy ever taking place again. By providing a strict organisational doctrine for the new Space Marine Chapters to follow, it would limit the possibility for corruption and rebellion, whilst still maintaining the strength and martial adaptability the Legions had known. This hallowed document dictates the core tenets around which the majority of Space Marine Chapters are organised.

At the head of each Chapter stands the Chapter Master, a warrior of consummate skill, possessed of a keen strategic mind honed by centuries of warfare. His is the final word in all matters, though he is advised by both his company Captains and the four pillars of his command structure. The Reclusiam, represented by the Master of Sanctity, is the spiritual core of the Chapter, and home to its Chaplains. The Apothecarion is responsible for the training and deployment of Apothecaries, and the retrieval of gene-seed from fallen warriors. The Master of the Forge commands the Armoury, and provides the Chapter with arms, armour and equipment, and performs the re-sanctification of the same. Finally, the Librarian is home to the Chapter's Librarian psykers, warrior-scholars whose expertise regarding the endless vagaries of the warp is of the utmost value.

Each Codex-compliant Chapter numbers ten companies. These organised fighting forces of Space Marine battle-brothers are each led by a Captain – a champion and officer of particular distinction who is assigned his orders by the Chapter Master and granted the autonomy to command in whatever manner he deems most effective. The 1st Company is comprised of one hundred veteran warriors, the elite of their Chapter. Detachments from the 1st are deployed upon the most fiercely contested battlefields, for these warriors are capable of extraordinary feats of martial skill. The majority of these battle-brothers go to war clad in hulking suits of Terminator plate – each a relic of priceless antiquity – and all wield the finest weapons and artefacts that the Chapter possesses. It is common for veteran squads of the 1st Company to periodically join the ranks of the Battle Companies, where the surety and skill with which they slaughter the foe provides glorious inspiration to their battle-brothers.

The 2nd through 5th Companies are the Battle Companies, the main fighting force of the Chapter. The typical Battle Company is a mixed arms force. Led by a Captain and built around a core of infantry, it has fast-striking elements that operate as a vanguard, heavy firepower in the form of cannon-toting marksmen and nigh-indestructible tanks, and psychic and spiritual support from the Librarians and Chaplains that are often assigned to it. If the tactical situation calls for it, each Battle Company can also make use of various support and operational vehicles; Rhino and Razorback transports, as well as Drop Pods, all of which are maintained in sufficient numbers to facilitate a swift armoured deployment.

The endless wars fought by the Chapters of the Adeptus Astartes mean that casualties among the Battle Companies are inevitable, and thus it is important that they can swiftly replenish their ranks. The 6th through 9th Companies are designated the Reserve Companies, and formerly were only deployed against the enemy in the gravest of situations, such as if the Chapter's home world was under attack. Of late, however, the rising tide of Chaos has necessitated their full committal to front-line combat – the forces of the Imperium simply cannot afford to hold such valuable reinforcements in reserve. Instead, squads of Space Marines from these companies take the place of brothers from the Battle Companies who have fallen in combat, or have been sequestered or deployed elsewhere. It is a mark of how rigorous and exacting the training regimes of the Reserve Companies are that these newcomers are warmly welcomed when they arrive to take the places of the slain. The 6th and 7th Companies typically comprise versatile battleline squads, and the Codex Astartes dictates that such warriors are trained in bike-mounted warfare and piloting respectively – this ensures that the Battle Companies are never short of the specialist skills of combat and transport pilots. The 8th Company consists entirely of close support squads, masters of brutal close-quarters combat, while the ranks of the 9th are comprised of heavy support squads whose high-calibre, long-ranged weapons are capable of dealing extreme damage.

To ensure that it can continue to prosecute its endless war against the Emperor's enemies, each Space Marine Chapter must ensure that it maintains a steady flow of new recruits. These neophyte warriors are inducted into the 10th Company, where they begin their lifelong study of the art of war. Designated as Space Marine Scouts, these novitiates are trained by veteran officers in the arts of guerrilla warfare and covert operations. Wearing light, manoeuvrable battle-plate and wielding specialist weapons such as sniper rifles and heavy bolters, the Scouts learn their trade in the white-hot furnace of a war zone. They are seconded to the Battle Companies to range ahead of the larger strike force, performing reconnaissance and harrying the enemy whenever possible. Scouts must prove themselves upon many battlefields before their assigned officer will consider promoting them to become fully fledged battle-brothers.

Though the Codex Astartes has achieved almost religious significance to many Space Marine Chapters, the governing rulers of the Imperium have never decreed that it must be adhered to by law. Such a decree would be almost impossible to enact in any case, for the Chapters of the Adeptus Astartes are proudly autonomous, and have little time for the interference of human bureaucrats. The idiosyncrasies of gene-seed and the thousands of cultural deviations that have taken place in the years since the Second Founding mean that many warrior brotherhoods organise themselves in a different manner to the dictates of Guilliman. So long as such Chapters continue to slaughter the enemies of Mankind and submit to the ultimate will of Terra, such individualism is tolerated – subject to the approval of the ever-vigilant Inquisition.

SPACE MARINES ARMY LIST

This section contains all of the datasheets that you will need in order to fight battles with your Space Marines miniatures. Each datasheet includes the characteristics profiles of the unit it describes, as well as any wargear and abilities it may have. Some rules are common to several Space Marines units – these are described below and referenced on the datasheets.

KEYWORDS

Throughout this book you will come across a keyword that is within angular brackets, specifically <CHAPTER>. This is shorthand for a keyword of your own choosing, as described below.

<CHAPTER>

All Space Marine units are drawn from a Chapter. Some datasheets specify what Chapter the unit is drawn from (e.g. Marneus Calgar has the ULTRAMARINES keyword, so is drawn from the Ultramarines Chapter). If an Adeptus Astartes datasheet does not specify which Chapter it is drawn from, it will have the <CHAPTER> keyword. When you include such a unit in your army, you must nominate which Chapter that unit is from. You then simply replace the <CHAPTER> keyword in every instance on that unit's datasheet with the name of your chosen Chapter.

For example, if you were to include a Captain in your army, and you decided he was from the Blood Ravens Chapter, his <CHAPTER> Faction keyword is changed to BLOOD RAVENS and his Rites of Battle ability would then say 'You can re-roll hit rolls of 1 made for friendly BLOOD RAVENS units within 6" of this model.'

Note that ADEPTUS ASTARTES PSYKERS cannot be from the Black Templars Chapter.

While this section of the book provides rules for all Space Marine Chapters, those that are more unique – such as the Blood Angels (pg 88) or Space Wolves (pg 128) – have certain restrictions, datasheets and army special rules that can be found in their own sections later in the book. The LEGION OF THE DAMNED keyword can only be taken by Damned Legionnaires, while the other Chapters are described later in this book, with each description covering which units can be part of each Chapter. If you wish to see which units each Chapter can include, we recommend reading the relevant section first.

ABILITIES

The following ability is common to several Adeptus Astartes units:

And They Shall Know No Fear

You can re-roll failed Morale tests for this unit.

LIBRARIUS DISCIPLINE

Before the battle, generate the psychic powers for PSYKERS that can use powers from the Librarian discipline using the table below. You can either roll a D3 to generate their powers randomly (re-roll any duplicate results), or you can select the psychic powers you wish the psyker to have.

LIBRARIUS DISCIPLINE

D3 PSYCHIC POWER

Veil of Time

Veil of Time has a warp charge value of 6. If manifested, pick an ADEPTUS ASTARTES unit within 18" of the psyker. Until the start of your next Psychic phase, you can re-roll charge rolls and Advance rolls for that unit and they always fight first in the Fight phase, even if they didn't charge. If the enemy also has units that have charged, or that have a similar ability, then alternate choosing units to fight with, starting with the player whose turn is taking place.

Might of Heroes

Might of Heroes has a warp charge value of 6. If manifested, select an ADEPTUS ASTARTES model within 12" of the psyker. Until the start of your next Psychic phase, add 1 to that model's Strength, Toughness and Attacks characteristics.

Null Zone

Null Zone has a warp charge value of 8. If manifested, then until the start of your next Psychic phase, while they are within 6" of the psyker, enemy models cannot take invulnerable saves and must halve the result of any Psychic tests (rounding up) that they take.

'Of the Tactical Space Marine, bedrock of his Chapter and paragon to his brothers, I shall tell thee.

He shall be steeped in the lore of battle and schooled in all manner of weapon and strategy. With combat blade, boltgun and grenade he shall assail the foe.

But these are mere tools; a Tactical Space Marine's true weapons are his courage, his wits and his dedication to his brothers.

He will bring his foe to battle in a manner and time of his choosing, never himself caught unready or ill-prepared for the task at hand. In defence he shall be stalwart as the mountain, a bulwark stood firm against the enemies of Man. In attack he shall strike with the wrath of the Immortal Emperor, felling the foe without mercy, remorse or fear.'

- From the teachings of Roboute Guilliman as laid down in the Apocrypha of Skaros

ULTRAMARINES

Strategic masterminds and warriors of boundless courage, the Ultramarines are true paragons of what it means to be a Space Marine. At last reunited with their lost Primarch, the legendary tactician Roboute Guilliman, the Chapter will see the enemies of Humanity scoured from the galaxy and the Imperium endure the encroaching darkness at any cost.

The Ultramarines have always been the largest and most exemplary force amongst the Adeptus Astartes. During the days of the Great Crusade, the XIII Legion reclaimed untold worlds in the name of the Emperor, their Primarch Roboute Guilliman inspiring his sons to ever greater feats of bravery and tactical brilliance. Yet for all his might in battle, Guilliman was as much a statesman as he was a warrior. Recognising his gifts for diplomacy and command, the Emperor granted him dominion over the stellar empire of Ultramar, and under the Primarch's guidance this sector was transformed into a beacon of order and civilisation, a glimpse of Mankind's glorious destiny. Ultramar has survived through the carnage of the Horus Heresy, the rebirth of its beloved Primarch and countless xenos invasions, and still stands proud and defiant against the fresh horrors unleashed by the Great Rift.

The Ultramarines rigidly adhere to the tenets of the Codex Astartes that Guilliman himself authored in the wake of the Horus Heresy, codifying the manner in which Space Marines Chapters should prosecute war. Thus, they are often seen as the quintessential fighting Chapter of the Adeptus Astartes. Tactical Squads form the unbreakable backbone of their Battle Companies, advancing with sure precision under the cover of merciless fusillades from fire support units. Around this central core, specialist vehicles and troops are deployed in order to best counter the enemy's tactics. The Ultramarines are peerless masters of battlefield strategy, able to pivot and adjust in the midst of battle with astonishing speed. Where the likes of the Space Wolves revel in their individuality, the Sons of Guilliman prize rigid discipline and order above all. They fight with efficient cohesion, each warrior aware of his place in the order of combat, guided always by the words of the hallowed Codex. There is, after all, no foe that cannot be defeated with the correct battle plan.

Unlike the majority of the Adeptus Astartes, the Ultramarines do not recruit from a single world. They seek neophyte warriors from all across the Realm of Ultramar, and as a result can train new recruits and replace casualties at a far more rapid rate than most of their fellow Chapters. This allows the Ultramarines to simultaneously prosecute many different campaigns across the galaxy, while also dedicating their Reserve Companies to the task of training recruits and defending the borders of their domain. Additionally, in the wake of Roboute Guilliman's miraculous return and the subsequent Ultima Founding, the Chapter finds itself bolstered by the might of Primaris reinforcements.

All of the Ultramarines' martial skill, courage and tactical expertise will be required in the days to come, as the raw corruption of Chaos bleeds out across the galaxy and the legions of the Dark Powers seep forth to defile and destroy. Against the innumerable hostile forces that threaten to tear the Imperium apart, the Sons of Guilliman stand taller than ever before, ready to follow their beloved Primarch into the very fires of damnation.

RESURRECTION OF A PRIMARCH

For a hundred centuries, Roboute Guilliman, Primarch of the Ultramarines and Lord Commander of the Imperium, was held in stasis in a shrine within the Fortress of Hera upon the Chapter's home world of Macragge. Wounded grievously by the traitor Primarch Fulgrim's Chaos-tainted blades, there seemed little hope that the Avenging Son would ever rise from this temporal coma.

Yet the mysterious Aeldari Yvraine, prophet of the newly risen God of the Dead, saw the Ultramarines Primarch's resurrection as part of a grand plan that would see Chaos eternally defeated, her deity ascendant and her race saved from the doom that has long awaited it. Allying with the enigmatic Archmagos Dominus Belisarius Cawl of Mars – who was moving towards the same goal as part of the newly declared Celestinian Crusade – Yvraine and her allies fought their way past the forces of the Dark Powers until they reached Macragge and the Shrine of Guilliman.

The specifics of what followed remain known only to a very few, but in a miracle that shook the Imperium to its core, Guilliman emerged from his throne room, an ancient demi-god walking amongst his people once more. The Avenging Son did not indulge himself long in mourning his lost years or the desperate state in which he found his beloved Imperium. Armoured in a suit of regenerative war-plate and wielding his fallen father's flaming sword, Guilliman led the Primaris Marines created by Cawl on a grand campaign across the galaxy. The so-called Indomitus Crusade would mark the first significant Imperial offensive against the forces spilling forth from the Great Rift.

IMPERIAL FISTS

The Sons of Dorn are masters of siege warfare and constructing fortifications, an implacable and utterly unyielding Chapter who have defended the Imperium for long millennia. They are the indefatigable protectors of Mankind and the guardians of Holy Terra itself, and are ever prepared to pay the ultimate price to secure victory.

The Imperial Fists earned their reputation for resolute determination and stubborn refusal to accede defeat during the glorious Great Crusade. During this grand endeavour, their unrivalled skill at siege warfare was utilised to earn the compliance of countless worlds. Under the command of Rogal Dorn, their stoic and unshakeable Primarch, the Fists earned accolade after accolade, and were chosen by the Emperor to be the praetorians of Terra, the cradle of Humanity and the centre of his power. When the Primarch Horus rose up in rebellion against his father, the Fists were one of the few loyalist Chapters not to suffer hideous loss of life in the opening exchanges of the Heresy. As reports filtered through to Dorn regarding the true horror of the civil war that was now engulfing the Imperium, the Fists began to oversee the fortification of Terra, knowing full well that the Arch-Traitor's fleets and armies would cleave a bloody path through the galaxy with the ultimate goal of assaulting the throneworld.

The Siege of Terra was undoubtedly the Imperial Fists' finest hour, and though their eventual victory came at appalling cost, it perfectly showcased the fighting style of these resolute warriors. When afforded the time to construct their own fortifications and lace their kill-zones with mines, trip-wires and overlapping fields of fire, the Imperial Fists can hold their ground against a force many times their size. Where other Chapters specialise in the lightning assault, the Fists prefer to pin the enemy in place with artillery bombardments and heavy weapon fusillades, before dispatching any survivors with a punishing storm of precision bolter fire.

Imperial Fists do not seek adulation or glory for their countless battle honours. To the Sons of Dorn, the true worth is to be found in the performance of such deeds, not in their recounting. Pride is a dangerous thing, and in the past the Chapter has suffered terribly due to the innate stubbornness inherited from their Primarch, and their utter refusal to retreat. The Fists face a constant battle of will to overcome this psychological flaw, and it is a testament to their stoicism that several times in their history they have recovered from losses that would have destroyed any other Chapter. Indeed, their sheer obstinacy has led to many astonishing victories against seemingly impossible odds.

'We stand against the rising tide of Chaos. None shall move us, or lay us low. Our foes shall batter themselves bloody against the fortress of our contempt, and grind their bones to powder upon the ramparts of our disdain. And when they are naught but dust upon the wind, we will remain.'

- Captain Lydoro, Imperial Fists 4th Company

CRIMSON FISTS

A successor Chapter of the Imperial Fists, the Crimson Fists have inherited their progenitor's grim resolve and unwillingness to admit defeat. Despite suffering a tragedy that crippled their Chapter's strength, these warriors have clawed their way back from the abyss, and continue to fight on in the name of the Emperor.

The Crimson Fists Chapter was formed during the Second Founding, as the galaxy recovered from the trauma of the Horus Heresy. During the years of reunification and reparation that followed, they proved themselves true descendants of the Primarch Rogal Dorn, fighting in dozens of campaign across the galaxy. Such was their zeal and rigid adherence to the Codex Astartes that they became highly trusted agents of the Imperium, and were often tasked with missions of particular importance.

It was many years later, when the Ork horde of Waaagh! Snagrod fell upon their home planet of Rynn's World, that the Crimson Fists would face their greatest test. As the greenskin armies descended upon their fortress-cities, the Chapter unleashed its full might, fighting with a furious determination and courage that would have stirred the heart of Dorn himself. Led by their legendary Chapter Master Pedro Kantor, the Crimson Fists slaughtered the Orks by the thousand, and it seemed that this would be another glorious victory to be recorded in the Chapter's histories. It was at this moment of apparent triumph that tragedy struck. A malfunctioning plasma warhead struck the primary munitions magazine of the Crimson Fists' fortress monastery. The resulting detonation was cataclysmic, a billowing explosion of white-hot fire that annihilated six entire companies of Crimson Fists in an instant.

It was only due to the Chapter's innate refusal to give in and the charismatic leadership of Pedro Kantor that this disaster did not become the crux point of the Crimson Fists' defeat. Instead they rallied, gathering the remnants of their brotherhood alongside Rynn's World's surviving militia regiments, and staging a heroic defence. This resistance lasted for eighteen months of bitter fighting. Finally, the Crimson Fists emerged triumphant, though their numbers were tragically few. Yet self-pity and defeatism is not in the nature of the descendants of Rogal Dorn. The Chapter has risen from the ashes of the disaster at Rynn's World, slowly rebuilding their numbers and embarking upon new campaigns of conquest and xenocide. This display of stoicism and willpower has earned the Chapter much respect within the Adeptus Astartes. The furious hatred that the Crimson Fists bear towards the greenskins that laid them low will always burn hot, and Pedro Kantor has used the fire of that hatred to forge his Chapter anew.

'Let the Orks come by the thousand, or by the tens of thousands; we shall be ready for them. This world is the Emperor's, not theirs, and we shall wash it clean with their blood.'

- Pedro Kantor, Chapter Master of the Crimson Fists

BLACK TEMPLARS

Driven ever onward to righteous battle, the zealous warriors of the Black Templars launch crusades of conquest and destruction deep into enemy territory. Unlike their fellow Adeptus Astartes brotherhoods, the Templars maintain an absolute belief in the God-Emperor as a divine being.

The Black Templars were one of the Imperial Fists' original successor Chapters. While the majority of the Adeptus Astartes accepted the limitations and demands of the Codex Astartes, the first High Marshal of the Black Templars – the legendary Sigismund – saw the document as a slight against the Primarch Rogal Dorn's teachings. Refusing to adhere to its demands, Sigismund led his warriors into the depths of space, taking the war directly to the enemies of Mankind.

In the centuries since their founding, the Black Templars have drifted ever further from the core tenets of Guilliman's grand work. Their fanatical devotion to the cult of the God-Emperor lends them an iron will and ferocious strength, but also alienates them from their fellow Space Marines, many of whom find their zealotry distasteful. That the Black Templars venerate the Emperor as a literal deity is seen by many other Chapters as a blinkered and dangerous ideology.

Rather than maintaining a single home world from which they recruit and operate, the Black Templars are a fleet-based Chapter. Refusing to adhere to the limit of one thousand active Space Marines as demanded by the Codex Astartes, each Black Templars battle-fleet contains thousands of warriors. These scattered navies embark upon dozens of bloody crusades across the galaxy. Though the current High Marshal, Helbrecht, retains overall authority from his Battle Barge, the Eternal Crusader, the Chapter rarely gathers as one – instead, the individual Marshals in charge of each crusade are granted leave to carry out the Templars' divine purge of the xenos and the witch. The Black Templars bear a particular hatred for rogue and alien psykers, whose corrupted power can potentially drag entire planetary systems away from the Emperor's light.

Following the example of High Marshal Sigismund, an unmatched swordsman and the former First Captain of the Imperial Fists Legion, the Black Templars specialise in close combat. Unlike the majority of Space Marine Chapters, they maintain no Scout Company. Instead, their Neophytes are each assigned to an Initiate battle-brother, who trains his apprentice in the art of the sword. By the time these Neophytes are ready to join the Chapter's battleline squads, they wield their blades as an extension of their bodies. True masters of the form who have proved themselves upon hundreds of battlefields are granted ascension to the Marshal's Sword Brethren, elite warriors who are deployed to the most viciously contested zones upon a battlefield.

The Black Templars fight with a merciless, focused aggression, launching themselves upon the foe while bellowing their battle-oaths and prayers to the divine Emperor. The Chapter's single-minded fanaticism has granted them strong ties with the Ecclesiarchy, and it is common to see marching ranks of Black Templars battle-brothers accompanied by frenzied flagellant warriors and mad-eyed priests spitting creeds of eternal hatred against the heretic and the alien.

'Trust in your hatred for the mutant and the heretic, brothers. Embrace the vengeful wrath you feel within your hearts. In the fires of war we shall honour the divine Emperor, praise be his name.'

RAVEN GUARD

The Raven Guard are a solemn brotherhood of patient hunters, true masters of the sudden ambush. They launch their stealth strikes from the shadows with a speed and grace that should be impossible for those clad in full battle-plate.

Though for the most part they adhere to the Codex Astartes, the Raven Guard have always remained distant from their fellow Adeptus Astartes. They are by nature a cold and aloof breed. This reserved attitude often draws suspicion from more bellicose Chapters, but the Raven Guard care little. Their keen minds are ever fixed upon their next mission. They watch and they wait, as patient and lethal as death itself, seizing upon the slightest opening in their enemy's defence before falling upon them in a swift, explosive assault.

Raven Guard warriors inherit the pale skin and coal-black hair of their Primarch, the enigmatic Corvus Corax. Where the majority of his brothers sought the most glorious victories and prestigious deeds to impress their gene-father the Emperor, Corax put his unique talents to use in the field of covert operations and subterfuge. Whilst his father's favoured sons – Guilliman, Sanguinius and Horus – were showered with accolades, Corax went about his grim business in the shadows without complaint. Without his Legion's bloody work, numerous wars of compliance would have stalled in their tracks, and countless billions of Imperial lives would have been lost.

To this day the Sons of Corax continue to fight from the shadows, launching lightning assaults upon the enemies of the Imperium.

To better suit this style of warfare, Raven Guard detachments contain large numbers of scouts, jump troops and aircraft – units with the speed and manoeuvrability to quickly encircle and overwhelm the foe. Under the command of one of the Chapter's fiercely independent Shadow Captains – such as the fabled Kayvaan Shrike, recently promoted to Chapter Master after the death of his predecessor during the Damocles Crusade – a Raven Guard company can harry and misdirect a far larger force, striking relentlessly from all sides and inflicting horrific casualties before fading into the shadows once more. Not for the Raven Guard is a drawn-out war of attrition. They pluck the eyes from their enemy, cripple its supply lines and leave it stranded and vulnerable. Only then will the final assault be unleashed, and the prey eliminated with cold fury.

'I never imagined something so huge could move so fast. One moment that T'au machine was blasting us to hell, and the next it was in pieces, great gouges torn through its torso. All I saw was a blur of raven-black, like the shadows themselves had taken up arms against the xenos. We didn't lose another soul that day.'

- Guardsman Heibler, 37th Verdane Sabres

Chapter Master Kayvaan Shrike is a legendary figure – a hero to the Imperium and a harbinger of swift death to its enemies.

SALAMANDERS

The Salamanders are masters in the crafting of destruction upon the battlefield, and experts in the arts of the forge. Their dedication to destroying the Imperium's enemies is only outmatched by their commitment to protect those who reside within it, giving them a reputation for heroism that is very much at odds with their intimidating appearance.

The Salamanders believe that their endless war against the darkness is a test of mettle and endurance. Each battle is a crucible within which they are tempered, made true, and quenched by the blood of the enemy. They hold true to the tenets of their founder, the Primarch Vulkan, whose immortal legacy of valour and selfless courage is borne with pride.

In a galaxy populated with murderous butchers and dangerous madmen, even amongst the ranks of Humanity, the Salamanders shine out as a beacons of virtue. Yet even the common citizens they save from disaster view these armoured saviours with suspicion and fear. The constant fires and radioactive sun of their home world, Nocturne, have reacted with their gene-seed to give the Salamanders coal-black skin and strange red eyes. They wear the scaled skins of the draconic lizards and saurian mega-predators that prowl the mountains of Nocturne, and – having a legendary affinity with fire – stride undaunted through fierce conflagrations as they mow down their enemies. To the ill-educated and superstitious peoples of the Imperium, the appearance of the Salamanders makes them appear as abyssal fiends. If anything, the opposite is true. These warriors may be Angels of Death, but they live only to ensure Humanity's survival in whatever way they can.

The Salamanders Chapter is organised into seven warrior houses, for they were given dispensation by Roboute Guilliman in the aftermath of the Heresy to maintain their traditional organisational structure. First amongst them are the legendary battle-brothers known as the Firedrakes, whose deeds are high points in the Imperium's military history. Every Salamander is trained in the ways of the smith, the better to create and maintain the works of art that are their favoured weapons. Needless to say, the exceptionally well-crafted tools of war used by the most experienced Salamanders are deadly in the extreme. Many an enemy battle line has melted away to boiling slurry and molten bone under the fire and fury of an assault from the Sons of Vulkan.

THE LEGACY OF THE PRIMARCH

The treasured relics detailed in the Tome of Fire were forged by Vulkan himself. It is said that should the Salamanders prove skilled enough to find them all and gather them in one place, the Primarch will return to them. As a result, the Chapter has sought them out across the galaxy on a series of epic endeavours that have seen traitor worlds burnt to cinders and alien enclaves reduced to ash. The former Captain of the 4th Company, Forgefather Heřtan, wields the Gauntlet of the Forge and the Spear of Vulkan, and wears upon his back the scaled cloak known as Kesare's Mantle. Dogged and indefatigable, he will not cease in his crusade of retrieval until the rest of the Primarch's ancestral artefacts have been torn from the usurpers who claimed them and reunited with their rightful owners.

WHITE SCARS

Fierce of aspect but noble to the core, the White Scars are huntsmen beyond compare. They run their quarry to the ground with lightning charges, relishing the thrill of the chase and the feeling of the wind on their weather-beaten skin. They bear their wounds with pride, for they hail from a warrior culture that prizes bravery and joy in battle most highly.

The White Scars are recruited from the tribal nomads of Chogoris. Though they are a Codex-adherent Chapter that willingly embraced Guilliman's teachings after the Horus Heresy, they value mounted warfare more than any other. The vast majority will go to battle upon fast-moving but rugged vehicles that bear dents and gouges from many centuries of conflict. It is said the White Scars are born in the saddle, and that they are never truly content unless fighting in a high-octane running battle.

White Scars have a singular appearance. Their armour of white ceramite is emblazoned with stylised scars that echo those carved into their flesh upon inception. When they remove their helmets to better savour the sensations of the battlefield, long topknots whip out from shaved scalps as their triumphant laughter is carried on the wind. Those who have heard of their legendary reputation cower in fear at the sight of white armour glinting in the dawn light, for it usually means they are already encircled and as good as dead.

Though the White Scars are ferocious on the attack, they use their natural flair for lightning assault as a precision tool. They are experts in fieldcraft and the use of the environment against the foe. When they level their well-honed blow it is not as a reckless berserker, but as a master predator entirely focused on the kill.

Just as a Chogorian tribesman forms a bond of mutual respect with his war stallion, a White Scars rider will find a kinship with the machine spirit of his bike. This gives him an innate knowledge of how and when to push his vehicle to the limit. The mounted warriors of the White Scars are famous for truly impressive feats of heroism and skill. A White Scars battle-brother might ride his bike through a promethium inferno to emerge as a blazing herald of death, or veer up the side of a half-shattered tank to soar, bolters blazing, through the air before slamming down with bone-crushing force into the enemies skulking behind it. These warriors take fierce pleasure in their Emperor-given task of slaughter, singing tribal battle chants and revelling in the heat of war as they plough on in search of fresh prey.

Should a company of White Scars declare a Great Hunt against a particularly dangerous foe, it will cross the length of the galaxy in order to claim their adversaries' heads. They take great pains to ensure the enemy's first sight of them is also his last, striking with the speed of a lightning bolt to blast the enemy apart before a retaliatory strike can be levelled in return. In doing so they honour the teachings of their Primarch, Jaghatai Khan.

Though the first and only true master of Chogoris has long since disappeared into the mists of history, the Great Khan's legend is indelibly etched into the annals of the White Scars. It influences their every thought and deed to this day. They organise their companies as brotherhoods, and their Captains are known as Khans, each driven to the heights of excellence by the rivalry that has long thrived between them. When the Chapter musters in strength the night before war is to commence, these leaders engage in contests of martial prowess or physical strength to determine who has the honour of leading the charge at the dawn of battle. Once the enemy has been bested, the decapitated heads of their champions will be stripped of flesh, dipped in molten silver, and returned to the grand bastions of their fortress monastery – known as Quan Zhou – there to rot in silence upon the spiked walls as a warning for all to see.

Beneath the barbaric practices of these battle-scarred Space Marines lies a rigid code of honour. They give their all to the singular duty of protecting the Imperium; should the need arise, they will pursue their enemy through the most hostile war zones for years on end, and charge without fear into the teeth of the enemy guns.

'Surround yourself with the greatest warriors at your command, or cower in the deepest darkest hole you can find. It matters not. I shall take your head for the Great Khan and the Emperor.'

LEGION OF THE DAMNED

As if from nowhere they appear, skull-helmed figures wreathed in ethereal flames, their bolters spitting ectoplasmic fire that melts through thick stone and metal with ease, blasting enemies who have taken cover to ash. On battlefields uncounted these spectral warriors have intervened to reverse the course of battle for the Imperium, only to disappear without a trace.

Over the millennia of war since the end of the Horus Heresy, strange reports have filtered in from across the vast expanse of the Imperium. Multiple accounts have been recorded of silent, ghostly Space Marines emerging from the mists, bolters spitting white-hot fusillades of death into the enemies of the Imperium. Each of these warriors' armour is covered with bleached bones and flame motifs, the macabre iconography of the angry dead, and they inspire a potent terror in those heretics and xenos against whom they march. This eldritch force appears only when all hope seems lost, and though they do not speak a word, the hearts of all who witness their righteous fury are emboldened with a heady mix of dread fear and fresh hope. Those who whisper such tales name these phantasmal saviours the Legion of the Damned.

Countless inquests into these strange warriors have been launched by the Inquisition, but while they have generated dozens of different theories, none have ever been proven. Some believe the Legion are a psychic phenomenon summoned into being by the collective faith of Humanity; others insist that they are the spirits of those loyalist Astartes slain during the Horus Heresy, drawn forth from beyond the veil of death to wreak retribution on their ancient foes. Whatever the truth may be, it cannot be denied that the Legion of the Damned has prevented countless costly defeats for Imperial forces by virtue of their inspiring presence and merciless attacks, and their wraith-light has brought illumination to the blackest of circumstances.

Due to their shrouded origins and mysterious nature, it is impossible to ascertain much about the organisational structure of the Legion, if indeed it even has one; the Legionnaires make no sound at all in battle, and have never communicated in any conventional way with those they have rescued. They simply march forth in the traditional gun lines of the Adeptus Astartes, ignoring the volleys of enemy fire that pass harmlessly through their armour, and unleashing an apocalyptic thunderstorm of bolt rounds in return. When the killing is done and the armies of the Emperor are victorious, the Legion of the Damned depart as mysteriously as they arrived. The scattered, charred bodies of the dead and the tales of wild-eyed survivors are the only clues that they were ever there.

BLOOD ANGELS

Nobility. Sacrifice. Glory. These are the hallmarks of all Adeptus Astartes, and no Chapter embodies these ideals with greater zeal than the Blood Angels. Swift and sure, they are the Emperor's blade, and they strike without mercy. Yet for all their accomplishments and deeds of heroism since the Great Crusade, the Blood Angels suffer from a fatal flaw.

Since the dawn of the Imperium the Blood Angels have fought at the vanguard of the Emperor's armies. Again and again they have led from the front, proving themselves exemplars of everything Space Marines should be. These fast-striking elite forces can launch coordinated attacks to sweep away foes, regardless of ground or atmospheric conditions, and seize victory even when vastly outnumbered. Despite having won many laurels, the Blood Angels continue to strive for perfection, ever eager to win further renown. In this, they take after their Primarch, the legendary Sanguinius. Angel-winged and beautiful, Sanguinius was arguably the greatest of his father's sons. A mighty warrior and inspiring leader, Sanguinius' glory was that of a demi-god, and the Legion sired from his blood followed him with unquestioning devotion.

It was during the epic battles at the close of the Horus Heresy that Sanguinius fell, slain by his brother Primarch, the Warmaster Horus. Sanguinius and the Space Marines made from his gene-seed shared a special bond. His tragic death to the Archenemy left a mental scar upon the Chapter, a fugue that continues to mar their glory. A flaw in the gene-seed that is passed down from the Primarch to each new generation of Blood Angels causes the warriors to struggle constantly with the excessive rage that dwells within them. The Blood Angels were always aggressive, for to attack was their nature, but this propensity goes beyond bold assaults into berserk frenzies. It is a mark of shame to give in to this Red Thirst, as it is known, in any but the most dire circumstances. Only with rigid discipline can the Blood Angels keep themselves in check. Yet for some not even their mental fortitude is enough to prevent the next stage of their decline – the Black Rage.

Despite the best efforts of luminaries such as Brother Corbulo and Chaplain Lemartes, there is no escaping the curse that haunts Sanguinius' sons. Those Blood Angels that succumb to the Black Rage are quarantined off into their own company, known as the Death Company, and carefully guided by Chaplains. A warrior overcome with the Black Rage becomes mad with fury, slurring the past into the present so that he no longer recognizes his own comrades. Instead, those afflicted often believe they are Sanguinius himself upon the eve of his destruction, with the bloody battles of the Horus Heresy raging all around. These damned souls are gathered and their armour painted black before a Chaplain leads them into battle one final time. In a berserk rage the Death Company storms the deadliest part of the battlefield, each member shrugging off mortal blows to continue the fight until every last drop of their strength is gone.

Every Blood Angel knows it is better to die gloriously in battle than face that decline into bestial madness. And so, to this day, each of those Space Marines tied to Sanguinius' bloodline seek the very boldest of deeds in the hope of leaving behind a shining legacy of sacrifice.

After the devastation of their home world of Baal by an overwhelming invasion of Tyranids from Hive Fleet Leviathan, the Blood Angels have rebuilt their Chapter swiftly with the aid of the Ultramarines Primarch, Roboute Guilliman. In the organisation of their battle-brothers, the Blood Angels largely follow the dictates of Guilliman's text, the Codex Astartes – with a few modifications. They have many more jump pack-equipped warriors than a standard Chapter, as befits their aggressive style of war, and the legendary Baal Predator tank is fitted with turbo-charged engines that enable it to speed after the angelic assault.

Blood Angels Apothecaries are known as Sanguinary Priests, and are adept at handling the unique gene-seed of the Chapter, while Blood Angels Chaplains are trusted not only with the spiritual well-being of their battle-brothers, but also the fate of the Death Company, whom they guide into battle. So respected are these offices that should a Chapter Master fall to the Black Rage, temporary joint command of the Chapter will often be undertaken by the Sanguinary High Priest and the High Chaplain.

Resplendent in their winged armour, the Sanguinary Guard serve as an honour detail, each one a direct descendent of those who once guarded Sanguinius himself. To see them in battle is to glimpse the glory that has maintained the Blood Angels' prominent place in the Imperium for ten thousand years.

Although doomed by their own tragic legacy, the Sons of Sanguinius remain steadfastly loyal in their service to the Emperor. They remain hopeful that one day a cure will be found for their affliction. Until that day they will continue to fight at the vanguard of the Imperium's most deadly battles, ever striving to be remembered in honour rather than disgrace.

BLOOD ANGELS CHAPTER

The following Space Marines datasheets can be from the Blood Angels Chapter. Those that are replace the <CHAPTER> keyword on their datasheet in all instances with BLOOD ANGELS. If a Space Marines unit does not appear on the list below, it cannot be from the Blood Angels Chapter, and so cannot have the BLOOD ANGELS Faction keyword. BLOOD ANGELS PSYKERS generate their psychic powers from the Sanguinary discipline (below) instead of the Librarian discipline.

SANGUINARY DISCIPLINE

Before the battle, generate the psychic powers for PSYKERS that can use powers from the Sanguinary discipline using the table below. You can either roll a D3 to generate their powers randomly (re-roll any duplicate results), or you can select the psychic powers you wish the psyker to have.

SANGUINARY DISCIPLINE
D3	PSYCHIC POWER
1	Blood Boil Blood Boil has a warp charge value of 5. If manifested, select a visible enemy unit within 18" of the psyker and roll three dice. The target suffers a mortal wound for each result that equals or exceeds its Toughness characteristic.
2	Shield of Sanguinius Shield of Sanguinius has a warp charge value of 6. If manifested, select a friendly BLOOD ANGELS unit within 12" of the psyker. Until the start of your next Psychic phase, that unit has a 4+ invulnerable save.
3	Unleash Rage Unleash Rage has a warp charge value of 6. If manifested, select a friendly BLOOD ANGELS unit within 12" of the psyker. Until the start of your next Psychic phase, that unit has +1 Attack.

WARGEAR

Many of the units you will find on the following pages reference one or more wargear lists. When this is the case, the unit may take any item from the appropriate list on pg 11, with the following amendments.

The Blood Angels favour different weapons to other Space Marine Chapters. Add the following weapons to the Pistols and Sergeant Equipment lists when equipping Blood Angels units:

- Inferno pistol
- Hand flamer

Add the following weapon to the Heavy Weapons list when equipping Blood Angels units:

- Heavy flamer

The profiles for the weapons in these lists can be found in the appendix (pg 207 and 213).

BLOOD ANGELS SUCCESSOR CHAPTERS

There are many proud Space Marine Chapters that trace their origins to the gene-seed of the Blood Angels. From the frenzied Flesh Tearers to the brooding Angels Vermillion, all share the martial prowess and fiery blood-lust of their forefather Sanguinius. If you wish to theme your army as a Blood Angels successor Chapter, use the rules presented in this section but substitute the Blood Angels keyword in all instances on the datasheets and rules presented in this section with the name of your Blood Angels successor Chapter. Note, however, that named characters that can only be included in your army once cannot be from any other Chapter – Commander Dante is the Chapter Master of the Blood Angels Chapter, and not any successor Chapter.

FLESH TEARERS

Of all the successor Chapters of the Blood Angels, the Flesh Tearers have inherited the most drastic flaws of their genetic heritage. In battle these berserker warriors lose themselves entirely to a frenzied blood-lust, tearing the enemy limb from limb in a horrific orgy of slaughter.

Few Space Marine Chapters have as dark a reputation as the Flesh Tearers. Ever has the eye of the Inquisition and the Ecclesiarchy fallen upon these brutal killers, for such is the carnage and terror they leave in their wake that many believe they must surely be tainted by the touch of Chaos. The tales of the atrocities wrought by the Flesh Tearers grow increasingly grim with each passing decade, and it is only the devastation they have inflicted upon the enemies of the Imperium that has kept them from being further scrutinised.

The Flesh Tearers' home world of Cretacia is a tropical death world that teems with savage life, and contains some of the most ferocious predatory species in the galaxy. It is hard to imagine a more fitting planet for the Chapter to call home. The Flesh Tearers have inherited the fighting skill and courage of their progenitors the Blood Angels, but have also been afflicted with the very worst excesses of the Black Rage, the mindless need to slaughter that threatens to claim each son of Sanguinius. Where many of the Blood Angels' successor Chapters seek to suppress the savagery that boils within their blood, for many years the Flesh Tearers embraced it, exhibiting preference for close assault actions. Indeed, there are few finer melee combatants in all the galaxy than a Flesh Tearer Assault Squad, yet many Imperial Commanders remain reluctant to call upon their skills.

There is good reason for such reticence. Several times in their history, the Flesh Tearers have succumbed entirely to the Black Rage in the midst of combat, and when out of enemies to kill, have turned upon their own allies. There are rumours that entire Astra Militarum regiments and countless civilians have been torn and hacked apart by the chainblades of blood-crazed Flesh Eaters. Some say that during the Chapter's worst excesses, the Red Thirst has combined with the Black Rage, resulting in truly monstrous acts of cannibalism. While the veracity of many of these reports is questionable, it cannot be denied that the Flesh Tearers are prone to losing themselves to their slaughter-lust. Even fellow Adeptus Astartes have fallen victim to this madness – the Space Wolves hold a long-standing grudge against the Flesh Tearers as a result of a particular act of barbarism during the Eclipse Wars that came to be known as Honour's End.

Only through the diplomatic efforts of the Flesh Tearers' current Chapter Master Gabriel Seth has the threat of excommunication been averted. Though he is no less susceptible to the Black Rage than his battle-brothers, Seth has gone some way towards repairing the strained relations between the Flesh Tearers and their progenitors the Blood Angels. Armed with his colossal two-handed chainsword Blood Reaver, Seth leads his men into the thick of battle, as far away from any civilian zones as possible. There, with only the enemy in sight, can the Flesh Tearers truly embrace their lust for slaughter.

DARK ANGELS

At the very dawn of the Imperium the Dark Angels were the first founded of all the Adeptus Astartes. Few can match their long history of triumphs in service to mankind. However, behind the façade of their steady disposition lies a sinister obsession, for the Dark Angels are haunted by failings from the distant past.

No matter the foe or the odds, the Dark Angels stubbornly refuse to accept defeat. This tenacity, along with their taciturn character, are traits the Dark Angels inherited from their primogenitor, the Primarch, Lion El'Jonson. Between their grim mien, sombre and often hooded countenance, and the gothic symbolism rife upon their banners and gear of war, it is no surprise that the Dark Angels are feared not only by their enemies but often by their allies as well.

Although proud of the many glories won by the Chapter, the Dark Angels shun platitudes and avoid the vainglorious. The Sons of the Lion, as the Dark Angels are called, seek only to complete each task assigned to them as swiftly and efficiently as possible. This is not purely through a dour monastic outlook and selfless nobility, but something more nefarious. The Inner Circle of the Dark Angels – a secret group composed of the Chapter Master, his hand-chosen officers and veterans of the 1st Company – covertly wage their own secret war.

To outside observers, the Dark Angels are an exemplary Chapter of Adeptus Astartes. They strike swiftly, coordinating assaults with superhuman precision. The battle line advances under cover of fire support, and at the crucial tipping point, rapid deployment of close combat squads breaks all resistance before finishing off the foe. Enemies receive no mercy, yet the Dark Angels do not revel in bloodshed or excess. In the midst of battle they remain stoic, filled not with howling exultations but instead with solemn battle chants and hymns.

Eager not to draw attention, the Dark Angels follow the guidelines of the Codex Astartes, and yet they have petitioned to maintain their two unique fighting companies – the highly mobile 2nd Company (known as the Ravenwing) and the Terminator-armoured squads of the 1st Company (known as the Deathwing). Given the desperate circumstances of the torn and benighted galaxy, as well as the aforementioned companies' service records of excellence, the returned Primarch Roboute Guilliman granted such rights even as the Dark Angels and their successor Chapters began reorganising themselves to fit the dictates of the Ultima Founding.

THE RAVENWING

The 2nd Company is not clad in the dark green of the Chapter, but rather in black. They are a highly specialised formation that fights exclusively from fast-moving vehicles. The majority of the Ravenwing, including the elite Black Knights, fight astride Space Marine bikes. They are supported by brethren piloting varying marks of Land Speeder and swift atmospheric fighters. Fast assaults and reconnaissance are their trademarks. Their speed and daring is unmatched by any other Imperial formation, save perhaps the Great Hunt of the White Scars. There can be no underestimating the hard-hitting shock when the twin wings of the Dark Angels sweep down upon a foe. The fast moving Ravenwing speed into position before using homing devices to allow the Deathwing to teleport to the optimum location for a lethal strike.

THE DEATHWING

The 1st Company of the Dark Angels is one of the most renowned fighting forces in the galaxy. Known as the Deathwing, the entire veteran formation is outfitted in bone white Terminator Armour. The Deathwing is an assault force, able to march through the most intense storms of enemy fire or teleport straight into the fray, ripping the heart from the enemy army with a precision strike.

THE HUNT FOR THE FALLEN

As effective as they are at destroying the Emperor's foes, the Inner Circle alone knows that the Ravenwing and Deathwing hone their battle skills with a very specific prey in mind. It is those known as the Fallen that they hunt.

During the Horus Heresy, the Dark Angels protecting the Chapter's home world of Caliban fell under the sway of Chaos. The battle that occurred upon the return of Lion El'Jonson resulted in the destruction of the planet, and in the ensuing cataclysm many of the Fallen Dark Angels were swallowed by the warp and scattered across space and time. All knowledge of their treacherous brethren has been covered up by the leaders of the Chapter, a secret they keep even from those they would call allies. For 10,000 years since, the Dark Angels and their successor Chapters have sought redemption by hunting the Fallen. Using a mountainous shard of their shattered home world – the asteroid fortress known as the Rock – the Dark Angels have continued this secret war, always seeking an opportunity to hunt down those that have thus far avoided justice.

INTERROMANCY DISCIPLINE

Before the battle, generate the psychic powers for PSYKERS that can use powers from the Interromancy discipline using the table below. You can either roll a D3 to generate their powers randomly (re-roll any duplicate results), or you can select the psychic powers you wish the psyker to have.

INTERROMANCY DISCIPLINE
D3	PSYCHIC POWER
1	Mind Worm Mind Worm has a warp charge value of 6. If manifested, select an enemy unit within 12" of the psyker. That unit suffers a mortal wound and may only be chosen to attack in the Fight phase after all other eligible units have made their attacks. This effect lasts until the end of your turn.
2	Aversion Aversion has a warp charge value of 6. If manifested, select an enemy unit within 24" of the psyker. Until your next Psychic phase, your opponent must subtract 1 from all hit rolls made for that unit.
3	Engulfing Fear Engulfing Fear has a warp charge value of 6. If manifested, your opponent must roll 2 dice and discard the lowest result when taking Morale tests for any unit that is within 6" of the psyker in the Morale phase.

DARK ANGELS SUCCESSOR CHAPTERS

There are many esteemed Space Marine Chapters that trace their origins to the gene-seed of the Dark Angels. From the mysterious Consecrators to the ferocious Disciples of Caliban, all uphold the grim legacy of Lion El'Jonson. If you wish to theme your army as a Dark Angels successor Chapter, use the rules presented in this section but substitute the Dark Angels keyword in all instances on the datasheets with the name of your Dark Angels successor Chapter. Note, however, that named characters that can only be included in your army once cannot be from any other Chapter – Azrael is the Supreme Grand Master of the Dark Angels Chapter, and not any successor Chapter.

Grim of aspect, bearing aloft the heraldry of their secretive past, the Dark Angels charge the traitors of the Black Legion.

SPACE WOLVES

With blood-chilling howls the warriors of the Space Wolves hurl themselves into battle, hacking and tearing with a primal, predatory ferocity. Mighty warriors whose deeds and sagas stretch back to the dawn of the Imperium, the Sons of Russ are amongst Humanity's most redoubtable defenders.

Savage warriors hailing from the icy death world of Fenris, the Space Wolves are a stubbornly individualistic Chapter who have little patience for the petty bureaucracies of the Imperium. They fight to honour the memory of their lost Primarch, Leman Russ, and to deliver the wrath of the Emperor of Mankind – known to them as the Allfather. The legends told of the Space Wolves are beyond count, for they have battled across the galaxy since the earliest days of the Imperium, falling upon those who would threaten Humanity with unbridled aggression.

Space Wolves certainly appear little more than barbarous savages at first glance, with their untamed manes bound up with runestones, and their storm-grey armour bedecked with totems and kill-trophies. Any such belief quickly evaporates in the face of a Space Wolf assault, however, for the Sons of Russ fight with a vicious, predatory cunning. Individualistic by nature, the Wolves eschew much of the Codex Astartes, preferring to organise their armies according to their own ancient ways.

The youngest and most inexperienced of the Wolves are known as Blood Claws, and learn to master their berserker rage in the gore-strewn arena of melee combat. Older, more seasoned warriors join the ranks of the Grey Hunters, wily and adaptable killers who have fought upon countless battlefields. Only the wisest and most capable live long enough to earn their place amongst the Long Fangs, those venerable grey-hairs who punish the enemy from afar with pinpoint barrages from their heavy weapons, or the Wolf Guard, loyal veterans that serve under each Great Company's Wolf Lord. Unlike most other Space Marines Chapters, the Space Wolves source their scouts from within the ranks of their veteran fighters, rather than assigning the role to neophytes. These Wolf Scouts drift like wraiths behind the enemy line, wreaking bloody havoc upon their supply chain with acts of sabotage and well-timed assassinations.

The Space Wolves favour aggressive, rapid assaults. They utilise a number of unique and devastatingly powerful war assets to tear the throat from the enemy before they can bring their guns to bear. Thunderwolf Cavalry bound across the battlefield, the slaver jaws of these monstrous wolf-steeds as deadly a weapon as the swords and guns of the Space Marines who sit astride them. Stormwolf assault craft swoop down upon the foe, helfrost cannons firing even as Blood Claws leap from their landing ramps with joyful roars bursting from their lungs. Rune Priests summon the howling gales and lightning storms of Fenris to send vortexes of primal destruction tearing through the enemy's ranks. Wolf Lords whose acts are told and retold by the Chapter's skalds in epic verse forge new sagas upon the corpses of their enemies, carving a red path through all who dare challenge them.

CURSE OF THE WULFEN

All Space Wolves are marked by a flaw in their gene-seed, a strain of mutation known as the Canis Helix. This abnormality is what grants the warriors of this Chapter their feral, lupine appearance, and invests them with the predatory rage that makes them so fearsome in battle. In some unfortunate Space Wolves, it bestows a far darker change. The body mutates and twists agonisingly, bones reforming, canines elongating and thick fur piercing its way through flesh. Wracked by unimaginable pain, the unfortunate victim is overwhelmed by the curse of his tainted blood, and becomes one of the feral monsters known as the Wulfen. Most of these blood-maddened creatures roam the wilds of Fenris, ever searching for fresh prey to rip apart with their razor-sharp jaws, but a number have been captured by the Space Wolves and confined to the lower levels of the Chapter's fortress monastery, the Fang. There they are armed and armoured, and kept under watchful guard until such a time that they can be unleashed on the Space Wolves' foes. Only the venerable and wise Wolf Priests can maintain a modicum of control over these monsters in battle, where their feral savagery can be unleashed upon enemy formations with gory results.

UNTAMED WOLVES

The Space Wolves' most famous act of devastation occurred upon Prospero, home world of the traitorous Thousand Sons Legion. This gleaming paradise was burned to ashes by the vengeful Wolves after the Primarch Magnus the Red was found guilty of using sorcerous powers forbidden by the Emperor. In truth it was the Warmaster Horus who tricked Leman Russ and his Legion into sacking Prospero against their father's wishes, but nevertheless it ignited a bitter hatred between the Space Wolves and the Thousand Sons that exists to this day.

Ever short-tempered and stubborn, the Wolves of Fenris have made enemies within the Imperium as well as without. Long has the Inquisition desired to bring them to heel, frustrated by their wilful and rebellious nature, and suspicious of their strange rituals and unnatural appearance. An ancient animosity also exists between the Spaces Wolves and the Dark Angels Chapter, and has brought the two Imperial forces to the brink of open hostility on more than one occasion.

SPACE WOLVES ARMY LIST

This section contains all of the datasheets that you will need in order to fight battles with your Space Wolves miniatures. Each datasheet includes the characteristics profiles of the unit it describes, as well as any wargear and special abilities it may have. Some rules are common to several Space Wolves units, and are described below and referenced on the datasheets.

*'They have us outnumbered a hundred to one. Their aircraft darken the skies, their tanks churn the ground to mud, and all we have is our axes and our ill temper.
Hardly a fair fight, is it my Wolves?
Let them pray their weakling gods have pity on them, for we shall not.'*

The following Space Marines datasheets can be from the Space Wolves Chapter. Those that do replace the <CHAPTER> keyword on their datasheet in all instances with SPACE WOLVES. ¹ These vehicles can also transport Wulfen. Each Wulfen model takes the space of two other models.

SPACE WOLVES DREADNOUGHT WARGEAR

SPACE WOLVES Dreadnoughts and Venerable Dreadnoughts wield a number of weapons that are unique to their Chapter.

Replace the wargear options on these datasheets with the following:

- Instead of an assault cannon, this model can be equipped with a helfrost cannon or a weapon from the Dreadnought Heavy Weapons list (pg 11).
- Instead of a Dreadnought combat weapon and a storm bolter, this model can be equipped with a missile launcher or a twin autocannon.
- Instead of a storm bolter, this model can be equipped with a heavy flamer.
- Instead of a Dreadnought combat weapon, this model can be equipped with a great wolf claw.

Add the following wargear option and ability to the datasheet for SPACE WOLVES Venerable Dreadnoughts:

- Instead of an assault cannon, Dreadnought combat weapon and storm bolter, this model can be equipped with a Fenrisian great axe and blizzard shield.

Blizzard Shield: A model equipped with a blizzard shield has a 3+ invulnerable save.

TEMPESTAS DISCIPLINE

Before the battle, generate the psychic powers for PSYKERS that can use the Tempestas discipline using the table below. You can either roll a D3 to generate their powers randomly (re-roll any duplicate results), or you can select the powers you wish the psyker to have.

TEMPESTAS DISCIPLINE

D3 PSYCHIC POWER

Storm Caller

- Storm Caller* has a warp charge value of 6. If manifested, then until the start of your next Psychic phase, the psyker and any friendly SPACE WOLVES units within 6" of him gain the benefit of being in cover.

Tempest's Wrath

- Tempest's Wrath* has a warp charge value of 6. If manifested, pick an enemy unit within 18" of the psyker. Your opponent must subtract 1 from any hit rolls they make for that unit until the start of your next Psychic phase.

Jaws of the World Wolf

- Jaws of the World Wolf* has a warp charge value of 7. If manifested, pick an enemy unit within 18" of the psyker, other than a VEHICLE. Roll 2D6 and subtract the target's Move characteristic – the target unit suffers a number of mortal wounds equal to the result.

WARGEAR

Many of the units you will find on the following pages reference one or more of the following wargear lists. When this is the case, the unit may take any item from the appropriate list below. The profiles for the items in these lists can be found in the appendix (pg 206-209 and 218-219).

DEATHWATCH

Armed with the most advanced weapons and technology at the Imperium's disposal, the Deathwatch is Humanity's shield against the xenos horrors that threaten to overrun it on all fronts.

With members hailing from across the Space Marine Chapters, the Deathwatch is a brotherhood of warriors sworn to the safeguarding of Mankind against the alien menace. They have access to the very finest artefacts, weapons and equipment available in the Imperium, for they are outnumbered a billion times over by the seething hordes and cruel warbands of the xenos. It is a mark of the devastating skill and precision tactics of these deadly warriors that they stand strong against this hateful tide, never faltering for a moment. Theirs is the long watch, and without their ceaseless vigilance the Imperium would have fallen long ago.

'Such things I have seen. Shapeless horrors, their twisted, lumpen forms devoid of all logic, drifting forth from the space beyond the stars to infect our galaxy with their dreaming madness. An ocean of swarming, writhing alien shapes, pressed thick enough to smother the light from a sun. Creatures so unimaginably vast that our strike cruisers were naught but a speck of grit upon their eye. If the common man knew, brother. If he had even an inkling. Throne of Terra, the entire Imperium would be lost to madness and terror.'

- Sergeant Vietrach, 2nd Company Howling Griffons, formerly assigned to Deathwatch Kill Team Chaeros

Much as the Space Marines are recruited from the very finest specimens of Humanity, the Deathwatch draws its warriors from the elite of the Adeptus Astartes. Battle-brothers of the Deathwatch may hail from any Chapter, but to be chosen for such an honour they must already have displayed a particular talent for the eradication of xenos. With the assent of his superiors and the Chapter Master himself, the chosen warrior departs for the watch fortress that will be his home for the length of his vigil. Scattered across the galaxy, and commanded by the strategic masterminds known as Watch Masters, these fortified bastions stand guard against unimaginable horrors from amidst the stars and beyond. They also act as training grounds for the next generation of Deathwatch warriors.

New recruits are forced to endure gruelling regimes of physical and mental excoriation, supplemented by hypno-indoctrination courses that hammer all manner of xeno-biological knowledge into the subject's subconscious mind. By the time the recruit is ready to join a Kill Team – a squad comprised of fellow acolytes taken from as many as ten different Chapters – he is intimately familiar with the vulnerabilities and unique strengths of every alien species the Deathwatch has ever encountered. Bolstering this new-found knowledge, and the personal battle experience the warrior has accumulated during his own years of combat, are the disparate skills of his fellow warriors. While there is often inter-squad friction between the disparate Chapters, each warrior brings to the Deathwatch his own specialties, cultural beliefs and insights. Each Kill Team bonds in the heat of battle, learning to combine its varied talents into a fighting force that is both versatile and furiously potent.

The Deathwatch fight with predatory precision, identifying key weak points to exploit and overwhelming their foe with a single, deadly strike. Where a Tyranid swarm threatens to overwhelm a helpless frontier world, a Kill Team is dispatched to eliminate the synapse creatures that hold it together. Should an Ork gathering threaten an entire sector with the prospect of a Waaagh!, strike teams will swoop down within heavily armed Corvus Blackstars to eliminate the threat. The heavy assault cannons and cluster missiles of these swift gunships unleash a storm of flesh-rending fire, while their post-human occupants spill out to cut the heads from the snake, mowing the greenskin leaders down with a volley of hellfire bolter rounds that douse them in voracious acids. Evasive foes such as the capricious Aeldari are hunted down by packs of speeding bikers, while Terminators and hulking Dreadnoughts provide a heavy counter-punch should a Deathwatch detachment find itself facing monstrous, bio-organic horrors or alien mechs.

There is no xenos threat that these black-clad warriors cannot conquer, and no lengths to which they will not go to fulfil their vows. They utilise every weapon and warrior at their disposal and so, as the new influx of Primaris Space Marines flows out to the Emperor's embattled Chapters, the Watch Masters observe with interest, and draw up revised plans of their own.

THE BLACK SHIELDS

There are those amongst the ranks of the Deathwatch who forgo the right to wear their Chapter's heraldry upon their right shoulder. These enigmatic figures have abandoned their true names and removed from their armour any icons or honour-scrolls that might once have identified them. They come to the watch fortresses of the Deathwatch in supplication, pleading with the resident Watch Master for a chance to join the ranks of the alien hunters. So few are the Deathwatch that such requests are rarely turned down. None know the reasons why these warriors – known as Black Shields by their fellow battle-brothers – have denied their heritage, and it is an unspoken rule amongst the Deathwatch that none shall ask. Perhaps they are the last of a lost Chapter, destroyed by xenos raiders. It may be that they seek atonement for a grievous sin or failure of duty committed in their past. All that matters is that they fight with a furious determination to prove their loyalty to the Imperium.

DEATHWATCH ARMY LIST

This section contains all of the datasheets that you will need in order to fight battles with your Deathwatch miniatures. Each datasheet includes the characteristics profiles of the unit it describes, as well as any wargear and special abilities it may have. Some abilities are common to several Deathwatch units, in which case they are described below and referenced on the datasheets themselves.

ABILITIES

The following abilities are common to several Deathwatch units:

And They Shall Know No Fear

You can re-roll failed Morale tests for this unit.

Special Issue Ammunition

When this unit fires a bolt pistol, boltgun, twin boltgun, stalker pattern boltgun or a guardian spear, you can choose for it to fire special issue ammunition. If you do so, choose one kind of ammunition from the following list, and apply the corresponding modifier.

SPECIAL ISSUE AMMUNITION

AMMUNITION	MODIFIER
Dragonfire bolt	Add 1 to the hit rolls for this weapon when targeting a unit that is in cover.
Hellfire round	This weapon always wounds on a 2+ (except against VEHICLES).
Kraken bolt	Add 3" to the range of this weapon if it is a bolt pistol, or 6" otherwise, and improve the AP of the attack by 1 (e.g. an AP of 0 becomes -1).
Vengeance round	Subtract 3" from the range of this weapon if it is a bolt pistol, or 6" otherwise, and improve the AP of the attack by 2 (e.g. an AP of 0 becomes -2).

DEATHWATCH CHAPTER

The following Space Marines datasheets can be from the Deathwatch. Those that are replace the <CHAPTER> keyword on their datasheet in all instances with DEATHWATCH. If a Space Marines unit does not appear on the list below, it cannot be from the Deathwatch, and so cannot have the DEATHWATCH Faction keyword.

- Chaplain (pg 19)
- Dreadnought (pg 35)
- Drop Pod (pg 48)
- Land Raider (pg 58)
- Land Raider Crusader (pg 59)

- Watch Captain in Terminator Armour – use the Captain in Terminator Armour datasheet (pg 12)

DEATHWATCH WARGEAR

The Deathwatch favour different weapons to other Space Marine Chapters.

Add the following weapons to the Pistols list (pg 11) when equipping DEATHWATCH units:

- Inferno pistol
- Hand flamer

Remove the following weapon from the Combi-weapons lists (pg 11) when equipping DEATHWATCH units:

- Combi-grav

Use the Deathwatch Dreadnought Heavy Weapons list instead of the Space Marines Dreadnought Heavy Weapons list when equipping DEATHWATCH DREADNOUGHTS. In addition, DEATHWATCH DREADNOUGHTS cannot replace their Dreadnought combat weapon and storm bolter with a twin autocannon.

A DEATHWATCH Captain may replace his chainsword with a xenophase blade.

The only change a DEATHWATCH Captain in Terminator Armour can make to their default equipment is to replace their power sword with a relic blade.

DEATHWATCH Librarians and Chaplains may not be equipped with jump packs.

A DEATHWATCH Chaplain may not be equipped with a power fist.

A DEATHWATCH Librarian in Terminator Armour may not be equipped with a storm shield.

A DEATHWATCH Razorback cannot be equipped with a twin heavy flamer or a lascannon and twin plasma gun.

And They Shall Know No Fear, Special Issue Ammunition (pg 170)

Mixed Unit: A Deathwatch Kill Team can contain models with different Toughness characteristics. If this is the case, use the Toughness characteristic of the majority of the models in the unit when the enemy makes wound rolls against it. If there is no majority, the Deathwatch player may choose which of the values is used. ~~Whilst the unit includes any Deathwatch Terminators, it has the TERMINATOR keyword; whilst it includes any Deathwatch Bikers, it has the BIKER keyword; whilst it includes any Deathwatch Vanguard Veterans, it has the JUMP PACK keyword.~~ Unflinching: This unit automatically passes Morale tests if it contains any Deathwatch Terminators.

Crux Terminatus: Deathwatch Terminators have a 5+ invulnerable save.

Vanguard Strike: ~~When a Kill Team that includes any Vanguard Veterans Falls Back, it can shoot later that turn as if it could FLY.~~

Atonement Through Honour: A unit that contains a Black Shield can make Heroic Interventions as if it were a CHARACTER, and must do so if able to.

Relentless Assault: When a Kill Team that includes any Deathwatch Bikers Falls Back, it can charge later that turn.

Deathwatch Teleport Homer: If this unit has a Deathwatch teleport homer, place it anywhere in your deployment zone when your army deploys. If an enemy model is ever within 9" of the Deathwatch teleport homer, it is deactivated and removed from the battlefield. Whilst there are any friendly Deathwatch teleport homers on the battlefield, a unit that contains one or more Deathwatch Terminators can perform an emergency teleport instead of moving in its Movement phase. At the end of the Movement phase, remove the unit and then set it up with all models within 6" of a friendly Deathwatch teleport homer. That Deathwatch teleport homer then shorts out and is removed from the battlefield.

ABILITIES

Hover Jet: Before this model moves in your Movement phase, you can declare it will hover. Its Move characteristic becomes 20" until the end of the phase, and it loses the Airborne, Hard to Hit and Supersonic abilities until the beginning of your next Movement phase.

Airborne: This model cannot charge, can only be charged by units that can FLY, and can only attack or be attacked in the Fight phase by units that can FLY.

Hard to Hit: Your opponent must subtract 1 from hit rolls for attacks that target this model in the Shooting phase.

Supersonic: Each time this model moves, first pivot it on the spot up to 90° (this does not contribute to how far the model moves), and then move the model straight forwards. Note that it cannot pivot again after the initial pivot. When this model Advances, increase its Move characteristic by 20" until the end of the phase – do not roll a dice.

Crash and Burn: If this model is reduced to 0 wounds, roll a D6 before removing it from the battlefield and before any embarked models disembark. On a 6 it crashes in a fiery explosion and each unit within 6" suffers D6 mortal wounds.

Blackstar Cluster Launcher: This model can fire its Blackstar cluster launcher as it flies over enemy units in its Movement phase. To do so, after this model has moved, pick one enemy unit that it flew over. Then, roll one D6 for each model in the enemy unit (up to a maximum of 10 D6). Each time you roll a 6 the unit being bombed suffers 1 mortal wound.

Auspex Array: You can re-roll hit rolls of 1 for a model with an auspex array when targeting an enemy in the Shooting phase that cannot FLY.

Infernum Halo-launcher: ~~If an enemy unit that can FLY targets a supersonic model with an infernum halo-launcher in the Shooting phase, your opponent must subtract 1 from the subsequent hit rolls.~~

TRANSPORT

This model can transport 12 DEATHWATCH INFANTRY models. Each JUMP PACK or TERMINATOR model takes the space of two other models. It can also transport DEATHWATCH BIKER models – each takes up the space of three other models.

GREY KNIGHTS

An ancient order of champions shrouded in mystery and legend, the Grey Knights are Humanity's greatest defence against the threat of Daemonkind. Though the common folk of the Imperium will never know of their sacrifice and courage, it is only by their hand that the untold perils of the warp are kept at bay.

Within the warp – that roiling, ever-mutable dimension in which the accumulated sins and fears of the mortal races take terrible form – lurk the greatest threats to Humanity's survival. Creatures of unnatural horror and awful might, the Daemons of Chaos ever hunger for mortal souls, and strain constantly against the fabric of reality in their desperation to break through into realspace and commit their manifold atrocities upon Mankind. The Emperor, in his infinite wisdom, recognised this grave peril, and created a unique order of Space Marines whose entire purpose was to combat the daemonic threat. Thus were the Grey Knights founded, the ultimate weapon against the Dark Powers.

If only a fraction of Humanity possess the strength and will to become a Space Marine, that number is even lower for those chosen to take up the ceaseless vigil of a Grey Knight. Of the millions of recruits who are brought to the Knights' secret citadel upon Titan for testing, only a handful survive the vicious physical and mental torment inflicted upon them by their pitiless handlers. The brutality of this training is necessary. The Grey Knights fight on the forefront of a war that will decide the fate of the Imperium, and the hideous threats they face would shatter the minds of the unworthy. It is for this very reason that every Grey Knight is psychically active – there is no greater weapon against the creatures of the immaterium than to turn the power of the warp against them. Even amongst the Librarians of the Adeptus Astartes, this constant exposure to the horrors of Daemonkind would risk the insidious threat of possession, but every brother of the Grey Knights is incorruptible and utterly pure of soul. When they gaze into the warp, the shapeless malice within recoils to witness such strength of will.

Due to their unique mission, the Grey Knights do not adhere to the Codex Astartes. The Chapter is instead organised into brotherhoods – roughly comparably to the companies of the Space Marines – and armed with a variety of unique and esoteric weaponry and equipment focused towards the slaying of Daemons. Grey Knights learn to master all of these weapons during their vigil; a brother may begin his service in a lightly-armoured Strike Squad, before shifting into a heavily-armed Terminator Squad or taking up the storm bolter of a Purgator. Terminators form the backbone of a brotherhood's fighting force. It is a mark of the elite nature of the Grey Knights that their battle line troops are armed and armoured with the most powerful technology in the Imperium. They wield Nemesis force weapons, psychically active artefacts inscribed with runes of Daemon-slaying and bearing advanced power-field generators. These wondrous blades can carve through the unnaturally thick hide of a warp-spawned monstrosity as if it were naught but leprous skin.

When a daemonic threat emerges to threaten the Imperium, the Grey Knights strike with the fury of the Emperor, teleporting into the thick of the enemy force in a terrifying eruption of psychic might and blistering firepower. They know they must banish or slaughter their daemonic foes quickly, lest the incursion spread further and further, and more wretched abominations crawl forth from the immaterium. Terminators lumber forward, unleashing the thunderous percussion of their storm bolters. Scores of Daemons are shredded and blasted apart as bolter rounds inscribed with ancient runes of warding strike home. Before the monstrous ranks can react, the Grey Knights are amongst them, slashing and slicing with their Nemesis blades, purifying the taint of Daemonkind with bolter and flamer. Towering Nemesis Dreadknights stalk through the carnage, crushing foes to bloody paste with their energised fists, sending great thunderstorms of pycannon rounds into the thick of the Daemon ranks.

Whatever creature leads this army of the damned, whether it be Daemon Prince or mortal sorcerer, is hunted down and obliterated utterly, its psychic essence sent screaming into the warp. Shorn of their anchor to the material plane, the summoner's daemoniac minions are sent howling back into the nightmare dimension they call home. A single battle in the eternal war is won, and yet there is barely a moment of respite for the Grey Knights. Upon the moon of Saturn, in the Citadel of Titan, the psychics known as Prognosticators read and interpret the twisting skeins of the warp using the Emperor's Tarot, constantly searching for new threats. Few as they are, the warriors of Titan cannot address every daemoniac incursion, and so the Prognosticators seek the gravest, most terrible gatherings of Daemonkind, those manifestations that threaten entire sectors of the Imperium. There the Grey Knights strike with the light of the Emperor blazing in their souls, fighting and dying on behalf of a galaxy that will never know the magnitude of their sacrifice.

THE SECRET WAR

The wider Imperium has never heard of the Grey Knights. The truth of the warp and its infinite horrors is kept from the Imperium's citizens, for if Humanity was to truly recognise the nightmare that threatens to envelop it, the consequences would be grave indeed. Any reports of daemoniac activity are quickly and ruthlessly censored by the Inquisition, which maintains close ties with the Grey Knights, often aiding or facilitating their campaigns of eradication.

Only the Grey Knights are truly immune to the taint of Chaos, and so any other Imperial force that aids them in the destruction of warp entities is in grave danger of being corrupted. Even the smallest chance this has occurred cannot be tolerated; entire armies of Guardsmen are put to the sword or subjected to telepathic scouring that renders them little more than mindless servitors. Space Marines are too valuable for such brutal methods, and so are instead mind-wiped or sworn to secrecy under threat of excommunication. Thus the Grey Knights remain nothing but a myth, a legend told in whispers amongst the very rarest of scholars.

ABILITIES

The following abilities are common to several Grey Knights units:

And They Shall Know No Fear

You can re-roll failed Morale tests for this unit.

Daemon Hunters

If this unit attacks any DAEMONS in the Fight phase, you can re-roll failed wound rolls for those attacks.

Rites of Banishment

When this unit manifests the Smite psychic power, it has a range of 12" rather than 18". Additionally, the target unit suffers only 1 mortal wound rather than D3 (whether or not the result of the Psychic test is more than 10) – unless the target unit is a DAEMON, in which case it suffers 3 mortal wounds instead of D3.

Teleport Strike

During deployment, you can set up this unit in a teleportarium chamber instead of placing it on the battlefield. At the end of any of your Movement phases this unit can teleport into battle – set it up anywhere on the battlefield that is more than 9" away from any enemy models.

GREY KNIGHTS CHAPTER

The following Space Marines datasheets, can be from the Grey Knights Chapter. Those that are replace the <CHAPTER> keyword on their datasheet in all instances with GREY KNIGHTS. If a Space Marines unit does not appear on the list below, it cannot be from the Grey Knights Chapter, and so cannot have the GREY KNIGHTS faction keyword. GREY KNIGHTS PSYKERS generate their psychic powers from the Sanctic discipline (right) instead of the Librarius discipline.

- Land Raider (pg 58)
- Land Raider Crusader (pg 59)
- Land Raider Redeemer (pg 60)

- Servitors (pg 16)
- Stormraven Gunship (pg 57)
- Techmarine ^{1,3,4} (pg 16)
- Venerable Dreadnought ¹ (pg 36)

¹ These units gain the PSYKER keyword and the Daemon Hunters and Rites of Banishment abilities. They can attempt to manifest one psychic power in each friendly Psychic phase, and attempt to deny one psychic power in each enemy Psychic phase. They know the Smite psychic power.

² This unit is armed with frag grenades and krak grenades. He is also armed with a Nemesis warding stave instead of a force stave, which he can replace with an item from the Grey Knights Melee Weapons list.

³ These units are armed with psyk-out grenades.

⁴ This unit must take a servo-harness.

SANCTIC DISCIPLINE

Before the battle, generate the psychic powers for PSYKERS that can use powers from the Sanctic discipline using the table below. You can either roll a D3 to generate their powers randomly (re-roll any duplicate results), or you can select the psychic powers you wish the psyker to have.

SANCTIC DISCIPLINE

D3 PSYCHIC POWER

Purge Soul

Purge Soul has a warp charge value of 5. If manifested, pick a visible enemy unit within 12" of the psyker. Both controlling players roll a dice and add their respective unit's highest Leadership value. If the target's total is equal to or greater than the psyker's total, nothing happens. If the psyker's total is greater than the target's total, the target unit suffers a number of mortal wounds equal to the difference.

Gate of Infinity

Gate of Infinity has a warp charge value of 6. If manifested, pick a friendly GREY KNIGHTS unit within 12" of the psyker. Remove that unit from the battlefield and immediately set it up anywhere on the battlefield that is more than 9" from any enemy models.

Hammerhand

Hammerhand has a warp charge value of 6. If manifested, pick a friendly GREY KNIGHTS unit within 12" of the psyker. Add 1 to any wound rolls you make for that unit's Melee weapons until the start of your next Psychic phase.

WARGEAR

Many of the units you will find on the following pages reference one or more wargear lists. When this is the case, the unit may take any item from the appropriate list on pg 11 or below. The profiles for the weapons in these lists can be found in the appendix (pg 223).

BATTLE-FORGED ARMIES

When picking a Battle-forged army for matched play, you will need to record the details of your army on a piece of paper (your Army Roster). Here we show one example of how you can do this; using several Detachment Rosters, at least one for each Detachment in your army, and the summarising main Army Roster itself. Over the page are blank rosters you can photocopy.

DETACHMENT ROSTERS

Each Detachment Roster details all the units it includes. Each unit has a small entry of its own where you can write down the name and type of unit, its Battlefield Role, the number of models it contains, and the weapons each model in the unit is equipped with. Details of how many models make up each unit and what weapons, options and upgrades each can take can be found on that unit's datasheet.

The points value of each unit's models and each individual weapon is then noted down by referencing the points lists in the appendix, and added together to give a points cost for the unit. The points cost of the entire Detachment is simply then the sum of the points costs of its units. This can be noted down alongside other useful information, such as the number of Command Points (if any) the Detachment gives you (see the Warhammer 40,000 rulebook for more on Command Points).

Unit Champions

Many units are led by a champion of some kind such as a Sergeant. Unit champions often have better characteristics and weapon options than the models they command. With the exception of Wolf Guard Pack Leaders in Terminator Armour, unit champions have the same points cost as the others models in their unit.

Under-strength Units

Sometimes you may find that you do not have enough models to field a minimum-sized unit; if this is the case, you can still include one unit of that type in your army with as many models as you have available. In matched play games, you only pay the points for the models you actually have in an under-strength unit (and any weapons they are equipped with). An under-strength unit still takes up the appropriate slot in a Detachment.

ARMY ROSTER

Once you have filled in all of your Detachment Rosters, you can then fill out the main Army Roster. The name and points value of each Detachment is noted down here for reference. The total points cost of your army is the sum of all the Detachment points costs in your army plus any reinforcement points you have chosen to put aside (see below). The points cost of your army should not exceed the points limit you are using for the battle.

There are lots of other useful things to write down on your main Army Roster, such as who the army's Warlord is (this should be done at the start of the battle) and the number of Command Points available to your army. Remember that all Battle-forged armies start with 3 Command Points, but certain Detachments, and occasionally certain models, can change this total.

Reinforcement Points

Sometimes an ability will allow you to add units to your army, or replace units that have been destroyed. You must set aside some of your points in order to use these units. The points you set aside are called your reinforcement points, and need to be recorded on your army roster. Each time a unit is added to an army during battle, subtract the number of points the unit would cost from your pool of reinforcement points.

POINTS VALUES

If you are playing a matched play game, or a game that uses a points limit, you can use the points costs to determine the total points cost of your army. To do so, simply add together the points costs of all your models and their wargear.

The points values in this book have not been included as they are out of date; for current points values, please refer to the most recent Munitorum Field Manual and/or any relevant supplements which released afterward for this army (e.g. Psychic Awakening).
